Twilight Los Angeles 1992 On The Road:

Twilight Anna Deavere Smith, 1994-03-15 From an acclaimed playwright comes an American masterpiece Newsweek about the 1992 Los Angeles riots Twilight is a stunning work of documentary theater that explores the devastating human impact of the five days of riots following the Rodney King verdict From nine months of interviews with more than two hundred people Smith has chosen the voices that best reflect the diversity and tension of a city in turmoil a disabled Korean man a white male Hollywood talent agent a Panamanian immigrant mother a teenage black gang member a macho Mexican American artist Rodney King's aunt beaten truck driver Reginald Denny former Los Angeles police chief Daryl Gates and other witnesses participants and victims A work that goes directly to the heart of the issues of race and class Twilight ruthlessly probes the language and the lives of its subjects offering stark insight into the complex and pressing social economic and political issues that fueled the flames in the wake of the Rodney King verdict and ignited a conversation about policing and race that continues today

Worldmaking Dorinne Kondo, 2018-12-06 In this bold innovative work Dorinne Kondo theorizes the racialized structures of inequality that pervade theater and the arts Grounded in twenty years of fieldwork as dramaturg and playwright Kondo mobilizes critical race studies affect theory psychoanalysis and dramatic writing to trenchantly analyze theater's work of creativity as theory acting writing dramaturgy Race making occurs backstage in the creative process and through economic forces institutional hierarchies hiring practices ideologies of artistic transcendence and aesthetic form For audiences the arts produce racial affect structurally over determined ways affect can enhance or diminish life Upending genre through scholarly interpretation vivid vignettes and Kondo's original play Worldmaking journeys from an initial romance with theater that is shattered by encounters with racism toward what Kondo calls reparative creativity in the work of minoritarian artists Anna Deavere Smith David Henry Hwang and the author herself Worldmaking performs the potential for the arts to remake worlds from theater worlds to psychic worlds to worldmaking visions for social transformation

The History of Forgetting Norman M. Klein, 2020-05-05 Los Angeles is a city which has long thrived on the continual re creation of own myth In this extraordinary and original work Norman Klein examines the process of memory erasure in LA Using a provocative mixture of fact and fiction the book takes us on an anti tour of downtown LA examines life for Vietnamese immigrants in the City of Dreams imagines Walter Benjamin as a Los Angeleno and finally looks at the way information technology has recreated the city turning cyberspace into the last suburb In this new edition Norman Klein examines new models for erasure in LA He explores the evolution of the Latino majority how the Pacific economy is changing the structure of urban life the impact of collapsing infrastructure in the city and the restructuring of those very districts that had been forgotten

The Melancholy of Race Anne Anlin Cheng, 2001 Cheng proposes that racial identification is itself already a melancholic act a social category that is imaginatively supported through a dynamic of loss and compensation by which the racial other is at once rejected and retained Using psychoanalytic theories on mourning and melancholia as inroads into her subject Cheng offers a closely observed and carefully reasoned account of the minority experience as expressed in works of art by and about Asian Americans and African Americans She argues that the racial minority and dominant American culture both suffer from racial melancholia and that this insight is crucial to a productive reimagining of progressive politics Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2015-04-22 Presents articles on feminist literature including significant authors themes and history

Documentary Theatre and Performance Andy Lavender,2024-07-25 What distinguishes documentary theatre from other forms of drama How has it integrated different media across the years and to what effect What is its relationship to truth and reality and defining moments of civic unrest and political change In this short authoritative book Andy Lavender surveys a century of documentary theatre and performance and analyses key productions Arranged in 3 sections that take a broadly chronological approach the volume considers the nature of documenting forms of intervention through theatre the presentation of lived experience and issues of truth reality and representation The book includes a variety of case studies beginning with Piscator's In Spite of Everything 1925 and tracing the work that followed in Europe and America including the tribunal and testimony plays of the 1990s and 2000s It examines the relationship of 3 key productions to moments of civic and political crisis Fires in the Mirror Crown Heights Brooklyn and Other Identities 1992 Twilight Los Angeles 1992 1993 and The Colour of Justice The Stephen Lawrence Enquiry 1999 Finally it looks at the impact of digital technologies social media and hybrid artforms in the 21st century to explore the engagement of documentary performance with mediations and experiences of cultural change and shifting identities across a range of case studies

Private Needs, Public Selves John K. Roth,1997 Polls through the 90s show that many Americans believe the nation is in a period of spiritual decline yet public religious display and discussion often is deemed politically incorrect Philosopher John K Roth feels that more outward sharing of religious beliefs thoughts and ideas would bridge the gap between our private needs and our public selves and would give Americans of differing faiths a common identity

Shakespeare and the Authority of Performance William B. Worthen,1997-09-25 How the idea of Shakespearean authority is still invested in the activities of directing acting and scholarship

Troubling Beginnings Maurice Stevens,2004-06-01 This interdisciplinary and creative study examines how African American culture is presented in American films and other media and is a provocative re reading of the historiography of black culture The author examines and interprets a number of cultural texts deriving memory as interpreted by Freud and by Franz Fanon mixed with Black Liberation Theology and Islamic mysticism

Acting \(Re\)Considered Phillip B. Zarrilli,2005-06-28 Acting Re Considered is an exceptionally wide ranging collection of theories on acting ideas about body and training and statements about the actor in performance This second edition includes five new essays and has been fully revised and updated with discussions by or about major figures who have shaped theories and practices of acting and performance from the late nineteenth century to the present The essays by directors historians actor trainers and actors bridge the gap between theories and practices of acting and between East and West No other book provides such a wealth of primary and secondary sources bibliographic material and diversity of approaches It includes discussions of such key topics as how we think and talk about acting acting and emotion the actor s psychophysical process the body and training the actor in performance non Western and cross cultural paradigms of the body training and acting Acting Re Considered is vital reading for all those interested in performance

Orozco's American Epic Mary K. Coffey,2020-02-28 Between 1932 and 1934 Jos Clemente Orozco painted the twenty four panel mural cycle entitled The Epic of American Civilization in Dartmouth College s Baker Berry Library An artifact of Orozco s migration from Mexico to the United States the Epic represents a turning point in his career standing as the only fresco in which he explores both US American and Mexican narratives of national history progress and identity While his title invokes the heroic epic form the mural indicts history as complicit in colonial violence It questions the claims of Manifest Destiny in the United States and the Mexican desire to mend the wounds of conquest in pursuit of a postcolonial national project In Orozco s American Epic Mary K Coffey places Orozco in the context of his contemporaries such as Diego Rivera and David Alfaro Siqueiros and demonstrates the Epic s power as a melancholic critique of official indigenism industrial progress and Marxist messianism In the process Coffey finds within Orozco s work a call for justice that resonates with contemporary debates about race immigration borders and nationality
