Tending the Fire That Burns at the Center of the World David F. White, 2022-07-29 Tending the Fire at the Center of the World engages the central question of Christian formation that is what kind of knowing is most likely to awaken and sustain Christian faith This book seeks to reclaim aesthetics beauty and creativity as the church's most native theological way of knowing and being which participates with God's own glory and creativity This book traces the prominence of aesthetics up until the dawn of the Enlightenment including recent theologians who reclaim aesthetics for theology and formation The book elaborates the aims and techniques of aesthetic approaches to teaching and learning in the church Finally this book cautions against overly determined rationalisms and moralisms that do not retain a sense of wonder delight and openness in the church's teaching liturgy and proclamation In this view the church does not simply regurgitate familiar texts political tropes or flattened doctrines but breaks into the world as Christ's body a parable a song a flash mob interrupting business as usual giving new expression to acts of care repentance forgiveness joy and communion awake to the beauty of God's gifts and inviting our worship

What Makes Life Meaningful? Thaddeus Metz, Joshua W. Seachris, 2023-11-30 Can human life be meaningful What does talk about life's meaning even mean What is God's role if any in a meaningful life These three questions frame this one of a kind debate between two philosophers who have spent most of their professional lives thinking and writing about the topic of life's meaning In this wide ranging scholarly conversation Professors Thaddeus Metz and Joshua W Seachris develop and defend their own unique answers to these questions while responding to each other's objections in a lively dialog format Seachris argues that the concept of life's meaning largely revolves around three interconnected ideas mattering purpose and sense making that a meaningful human life involves sufficiently manifesting all three and that God would importantly enhance the meaningfulness of life on each of these three fronts Metz instead holds that talk of life's meaning is about a variety of properties such as meriting pride transcending one's animal self making a contribution and authoring a life story For him many lives are meaningful insofar as they exercise intelligence in positive robust and developmental ways Finally Metz argues that God is unnecessary for an objective meaning that suits human nature Metz and Seachris develop and defend their own unique answers to these three questions while responding to each other's objections in a dialog format that is accessible to students though given their new contributions will be of great interest to scholars as well
