The Ecology of Marine Fishes Dr. Larry G. Allen,Dr. Michael H. Horn,2006-02-15 Marine fishes have been intensively studied and some of the fundamental ideas in the science of marine ecology have emerged from the body of knowledge derived from this diverse group of organisms This unique authoritative and accessible reference compiled by 35 luminary ecologists evolutionary biologists and ichthyologists provides a synthesis and interpretation of the large often daunting body of information on the ecology of marine fishes The focus is on the fauna of the eastern Pacific especially the fishes of the California coast a group among the most diverse and best studied of all marine ecosystems A generously illustrated and comprehensive source of information this volume will also be an important launching pad for future research and will shed new light on the study of marine fish ecology worldwide The contributors touch on many fields in biology including physiology development genetics behavior ecology and evolution The book includes sections on the history of research both published and unpublished data sections on collecting techniques and references to important earlier studies Crafting in the World Clare Burke,Suzanne M. Spencer-Wood,2018-11-09 This volume expands understandings of crafting practices which in the past was the major relational interaction between the social agency of materials technology and people in co creating an emergent ever changing world The chapters discuss different ways that crafting in the present is useful in understanding crafting experiences and methods in the past including experiments to reproduce ancient excavated objects historical accounts of crafting methods and experiences craft revivals and teaching historical crafts at museums and schools Crafting in the World is unique in the diversity of its theoretical and multidisciplinary approaches to researching crafting not just as a set of techniques for producing functional objects but as social practices and technical choices embodying cultural ideas knowledge and multiple interwoven social networks Crafting expresses and constitutes mental schemas identities ideologies and cultures The multiple meanings and significances of crafting are explored from a great variety of disciplinary perspectives including anthropology archaeology sociology education psychology women s studies and ethnic studies This book provides a deep temporal range and a global geographical scope with case studies ranging from Europe Africa and Asia to the Americas and a global internet website for selling home crafted items Space, Time, and Organized Crime Alan A. Block, Most research on organized crime reveals only a limited sense of its history Our understanding suffers as a result Space Time and Organized Crime shows how arguments about the sources consequences and extent of crime are distorted as a consequence of crude empiricism Originally published in Europe in 1991 as Perspectives on Organizing Crime this book is a timely blend of history criticism and research Fully one fourth of this new edition contains hitherto unpublished materials especially relevant to the American experience Space Time and Organized Crime describes the background of Progressive Era New York It then broadens its scope by exploring the changes in drug production and distribution in Europe from about 1925 to the mid 1930s Block addresses such little explored issues as the ethnicity of traders the structure of drug syndicates and the impact of legislation that attempted to criminalize increasing aspects of the world s narcotic industry prior to the Second World War He then goes on to present organized crime s involvement with transnational political movements intelligence services and political murders Space Time and Organized Crime concentrates on ambiguities evident in organized crime control such as the U S Internal Revenue Service s protection of criminal off shore financial interests and the contradictions found in America s war on drugs Space Time and Organized Crime demonstrates that the essential nature of crime in the twentieth century regardless of where it takes place cannot be understood without sound historical studies and a more sophisticated criminological approach Block s unique blend of stratification in a historical context will be of special interest to historians sociologists criminologists and penologist Technology, Sustainability, and Rural Development in Africa Maumbe, Blessing, Okello, Julius J., 2013-03-31 This book provides research analytical methods techniques and development policies in ICT adoption and diffusion in Africa and around the globe highlighting the major trends in ICT applications and rural development Provided by publisher
