Brodsky Translating Brodsky: Poetry in Self-Translation Alexandra Berlina, 2014-04-24 Is poetry lost in translation or is it perhaps the other way around Is it found Gained Won What happens when a poet decides to give his favorite Russian poems a new life in English Are the new texts shadows twins or doppelgangers of their originals or are they something completely different Does the poet resurrect himself from the death of the author by reinterpreting his own work in another language or does he turn into a monster a bilingual bicultural centaur Alexandra Berlina herself a poetry translator and a 2012 Barnstone Translation Prize laureate addresses these questions in this new study of Joseph Brodsky whose Nobel prize winning work has never yet been discussed from this perspective

Unless Carol Shields, 2010-10-08 Unless you're lucky unless you're healthy fertile unless you're loved and fed unless you're offered what others are offered you go down in the darkness down to despair Reta Winters has many reasons to be happy Her three almost grown daughters Her twenty year relationship with their father Her work translating the larger than life French intellectual and feminist Danielle Westerman Her modest success with a novel of her own and the clamour of her American publisher for a sequel Then in the spring of her forty fourth year all the quiet satisfactions of her well lived life disappear in a moment her eldest daughter Norah suddenly runs from the family and ends up mute and begging on a Toronto street corner with a hand lettered sign reading GOODNESS around her neck GOODNESS With the inconceivable loss of her daughter like a lump in her throat Reta tackles the mystery of this message What in this world has broken Norah and what could bring her back to the provisional safety of home Reta's wit is the weapon she most often brandishes as she kicks against the pricks that have brought her daughter down Carol Shields brings us Reta's voice in all its poignancy outrage and droll humour Piercing and sad astute and evocative full of tenderness and laughter Unless will stand with The Stone Diaries in the canon of Carol Shields's fiction

The Time Between Places Pauline Kaldas, 2010-11-01 This collection of twenty stories delves into the lives of Egyptian characters from those living in Egypt to those who have immigrated to the United States With subtle and eloquent prose the complexities of these characters are revealed opening a door into their intimate struggles with identity and place We meet people who are tempted by the possibilities of America and others who are tempted by the desire to return home Some are in the throes of re-creating themselves in the new world while others seem to be embedded in the loss of their homeland Many of these characters although physically located in either the United States or Egypt have lives that embrace both cultures A Game of Chance follows the actions of a young man when he wins the immigration lottery and then must decide whether or not to change his life Cumin and Coriander takes us inside a woman's thoughts as she tries to come to terms with the path her life has taken while working as a cook for American expatriates in Egypt The Top enters the mind of a man whose immigration results in a loss of identity and sanity These compelling stories pull us into the lives of many different characters and offer us striking insights into the Arab American experience Dinarzad's Children Pauline Kaldas,Khaled Mattawa,2009-11-01 The first edition of Dinarzad s Children was a groundbreaking and popular anthology that brought to light the growing body of short fiction being written by Arab Americans This expanded edition includes sixteen new stories thirty in all and new voices and is now organized into sections that invite readers to enter the stories from a variety of directions Here are stories that reveal the initial adjustments of immigrants the challenges of forming relationships the political nuances of being Arab American the vision directed towards homeland and the ongoing search for balance and identity The contributors are D H Melhem Mohja Khaf Rabi Alameddine Rawi Hage Laila Halaby Patricia Sarrafian Ward Alia Yunis Diana Abu Jaber Susan Muaddi Darraj Samia Serageldin Alia Yunis Joseph Geha May Monsoor Munn Frances Khirallah Nobel Nabeel Abraham Yussef El Guindi Hedy Habra Randa Jarrar Zahie El Kouri Amal Masri Sahar Mustafah Evelyn Shakir David Williams Pauline Kaldas and Khaled Mattawa Technical Manual United States. War Department,1945 The Edinburgh Review ,1910 Hatters, Railwaymen and Knitters Daniel Gray,2013-08-01 Daniel Gray is about to turn thirty Like any sane person his response is to travel to Luton Crewe and Hinckley After a decade s exile in Scotland he sets out to reacquaint himself with England via what he considers its greatest asset football Watching teams from the Championship or Division Two as any right minded person calls it to the South West Peninsula Premier and aimlessly walking around towns from Carlisle to Newquay Gray paints a curious landscape forgotten by many He discovers how the provinces made the England we know from Teesside s role in the Empire to Luton s in our mongrel DNA Moments in the histories of his teams come together to form football s narrative starting with Sheffield pioneers and ending with fan ownership at Chester and Gray shows how the modern game unifies an England in flux and dominates the places in which it is played Hatters Railwaymen and Knitters is a wry and affectionate ramble through the wonderful towns and teams that make the country and capture its very essence It is part football book part travelogue and part love letter to the bits of England that often get forgotten celebrated here in all their blessed eccentricity Frame by Frame III Audrey T. McCluskey,Audrey Thomas McCluskey,2007 An invaluable compendium for anyone interested in cinema Understanding Insider Movements Harley Talman,John Jay Travis,2015-09-01 For the first time in history large numbers of people from the world s major non Christian religions are following Jesus as Lord Surprisingly for many Western Christians they are choosing to do so within the religious communities of their birth and outside of institutional Christianity How does this work and how should we respond to these movements This long awaited anthology brings together some of the best writings on the topic of insider movements Diverse voices explore this phenomenon from the perspectives of Scripture history theology missiology and the experience and identity of insider believers Those who are unfamiliar with the subject will find this book a crucial

Fujita,2009-05-16 In recent years a large number of young Japanese have been migrating to New York and London for the purpose of engaging in cultural production in areas such as dance fashion DJing film and pop arts in the hope of making it as artists In the past this kind of cultural migration was restricted to relatively small elite groups such as American artists in Paris in the 1920 s but Cultural Migrants from Japan looks at the phenomenon of tens of thousands of ordinary middle class Japanese youths who are moving to these cities for cultural purposes and it questions how this shift in cultural migration can be explained Following Appadurai s theory of the relation between electronic media and mass migration and using ethnographies of twenty two young migrants over a five year period Fujita examines how television film and the internet influence this mobility She challenges emerging orthodoxies in the general discussion of transnationalism demonstrating the disjunction migrants experience between the pre existing expectations created by media exposure and the reality of creating and living as a transnational artist participating in a global community Intersecting long term multi sited ethnography with emerging transnational and globalization theory Cultural Migrants from Japan is a timely look at the emerging shift in concepts of national identity and migration Queer Power Couples Hannah Murphy Winter,2024-05-07 This photographic

Race, Sex, and Social Order in Early New Orleans Jennifer M. Spear, 2009-06-15 Winner 2009 Kemper and Leila Williams Prize in Louisiana History The Historic New Orleans Collection and the Louisiana Historical Association A microcosm of exaggerated societal extremes poverty and wealth vice and virtue elitism and equality New Orleans is a tangled web of race cultural mores and sexual identities Jennifer M Spear s examination of the dialectical relationship between politics and social practice unravels the city s construction of race during the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Spear brings together archival evidence from three different languages and the most recent and respected scholarship on racial formation and interracial sex to explain why free people of color became a significant population in the early days of New Orleans and to show how authorities attempted to use concepts of race and social hierarchy to impose order on a decidedly disorderly society She recounts and analyzes the major conflicts that influenced New Orleanian culture legal attempts to impose racial barriers and social order political battles over propriety and freedom and cultural clashes over place and progress At each turn Spear s narrative challenges the prevailing academic assumptions and supports her efforts to move exploration of racial formation away from cultural and political discourses and toward social histories Strikingly argued richly researched and methodologically sound this wide ranging look at how choices about sex triumphed over established class systems and artificial racial boundaries supplies a refreshing contribution to the history of early Louisiana
