Therapy and research is interwoven throughout this text that begins by placing multiculturalism at the heart of the best traditions of scholarship as proposed by the highly regarded Ernest Boyer of The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. In a conversational style and through chapters addressing what includes modern resistance, the classroom stereotypes, resistance at the administrative level and groups, this book offers techniques and interventions to overcoming resistance. Readers who teach multiculturalism, students, researchers and those advocating for multiculturalism on the broader community level will find Resistance to Multiculturalism an informative guide to combating the challenges of resistance.

Network and Parallel Computing Hai Jin, Guangrong Gao, Zhiwei Xu, Hao Chen, 2004-10-14. This proceedings contains the papers presented at the 2004 IFIP International Conference on Network and Parallel Computing (NPC 2004) held at Wuhan, China from October 18 to 20, 2004. The goal of the conference was to establish an international forum for engineers and scientists to present their ideas and experiences in network and parallel computing. A total of 338 submissions were received in response to the call for papers. These papers were from Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, Finland, France, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Iran, Italy, Japan, Korea, Luxemburg, Malaysia, Norway, Spain, Sweden, Taiwan, UK and USA. Each submission was sent to at least three reviewers. Each paper was judged according to its originality, innovation, readability and relevance to the expected audience. Based on the reviews received, a total of 69 papers were accepted to be included in the proceedings. Among the 69 papers, 46 were accepted as full papers and were presented at the conference. We also accepted 23 papers as short papers; each of these papers was given an opportunity to have a brief presentation at the conference followed by discussions in a poster session. Thus, due to the limited scope and time of the conference and the high number of submissions received, only 20% of the total submissions were included in the final program.

Elated Dreams Rakesh Agrawal, 2022-04-28. Rishi met a wonder called Ritika on a trek to Doodhital as a student of JNU and fell for her. After spending eight eventful years in India's best university with a life enriched of art, music, culture, politics and off-course study, they moved to Dehradun where they tied the knot and created a slice of JNU there and were indulged in art, theatre, music and other cultural activities in Doon Valley. Rishi undertook the cause of fighting against devastation and destruction brought upon by big dams and hydroelectricity projects. Ritika was busy pursuing the issue of women's and community health. When the hill state was hit by the worst disaster that was in fact human-made, they were there at the theatre of this dance of calamity where, while rescuing the victims, Rishi himself became its collateral damage and he became paralysed. They returned to Doon where they resolved to put a balm on people's wounds and established a relief camp in a hill village where Rishi was involved for reconstructing people's broken and shattered homes while Ritika treated injured men, women and children. Ritika gave an unparalleled gift to Rishi by taking him to the
