Tyler Drumheller Discounted By Senate Report:

To Start a War Robert Draper, 2021-07-27 Essential one for the ages a must read for all who care about presidential power The Washington Post Authoritative The most comprehensive account yet of that smoldering wreck of foreign policy one that haunts us today LA Times One of BookPage's Best Books of 2020 To Start a War paints a vivid and indelible picture of a decision making process that was fatally compromised by a combination of post 9 11 fear and paranoia rank na vet craven groupthink and a set of actors with id es fixes who gamed the process relentlessly Everything was believed nothing was true Robert Draper's fair mindedness and deep understanding of the principal actors suffuse his account as does a storytelling genius that is close to sorcery There are no cheap shots here which makes the ultimate conclusion all the more damning In the spirit of Barbara W Tuchman's The Guns of August and Marc Bloch's Strange Defeat To Start A War will stand as the definitive account of a collective scurrying for evidence that would prove to be not just dubious but entirely false evidence that was then used to justify a verdict that led to hundreds of thousands of deaths and a flood tide of chaos in the Middle East that shows no signs of ebbing Intelligence Cooperation and the War on Terror Adam D.M.

Fixing the Facts Joshua Rovner,2011-07-26 What is the role of intelligence agencies in strategy and policy How do policymakers use or misuse intelligence estimates When do intelligence policy relations work best How do intelligence policy failures influence threat assessment military strategy and foreign policy These questions are at the heart of recent national security controversies including the 9 11 attacks and the war in Iraq In both cases the relationship between intelligence and policy broke down with disastrous consequences In Fixing the Facts Joshua Rovner explores the complex interaction between intelligence and policy and shines a spotlight on the problem of politicization Major episodes in the history of American foreign policy have been closely tied to the manipulation of intelligence estimates Rovner describes how the Johnson administration dealt with the intelligence community during the Vietnam War how President Nixon and President Ford politicized estimates on the Soviet Union and how pressure from the George W Bush administration contributed to flawed intelligence on Iraq He also compares the U S case with the British experience between 1998 and 2003 and demonstrates that high profile government inquiries in both countries were fundamentally wrong about what happened before the war
