

Types of Questions in SAT Writing Test

The questions in SAT Writing test are of two main types - the one where the candidate has to improve the expression of ideas, and another one where they have to recognize and correct errors in grammar, punctuation, and sentence structure.

Expression of Ideas

Aspirants are asked to improve the quality and substance of the writer's message and are of three kinds:

- Development questions are based on main ideas like thesis statements and topic sentences, quantitative information in tables, graphs, and charts, and supporting details, focus
- Organization questions focus on the placement of information and ideas, their logical sequence, as well as writing effective introductions, transitions, and conclusions
