Answer the following sentences in complete sentences. You MUST include the question in the answer! Following each chapter, you will use the questions and answer to write a summary of the chapter. The length of the summary will depend on the number of questions and the length of the chapter. All questions must be addressed in the summary. I WILL NOT TELL YOU HOW MANY SENTENCES EACH SUMMARY WILL CONTAIN!

CHAPTER ONE

1. Larry is our narrator. What point of view is used in the story? How can you tell?
2. What do we know about Larry?
3. Why do people think Larry is dumb? What do you think?
4. Who's Old Walter? What does Larry think of him? How can you tell? What's the simile about him on page 18? What does it mean?
5. How did was Larry when she lost her mom? Does she seem to remember much about her? How do you know? What type of conflict would that have been for her mom?
6. Who is Dora?
7. What do the slave children do during the day?

Martha Tarbell

Nightjohn Novel Guide Comprehension Questions And Answers:

Building Character Through Literature Rosann Jweid, Margaret Rizzo, 2001 The book's primary purpose is to introduce novels that show strength of character. It offers guidance for opening a dialogue about character issues through the included texts. While looking for books with strong character traits, the authors also sought to include award-winning titles from authors whose general bodies of work have been acclaimed. The Revell Tarbell's Teacher's Guide to the International Sunday School Lessons, Includes the RSV and KJV., 1909

Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2017-07-05 The 3rd Edition of Literacy Learning in the Content Areas helps readers build the knowledge, motivation, tools, and confidence they need as they integrate literacy into their middle and high school content area classrooms. Its unique approach to teaching content area literacy actively engages preservice and practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms. Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities, readers get hands-on experience in such techniques as mapping, webbing, anticipation guides, booktalks, class websites, and journal writing and reflection. Readers also learn how to integrate children's and young adult literature, primary sources, biographies, essays, poetry, and online content communities and websites into their classrooms. Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students' content area learning. Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading, writing, speaking, listening, and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area subjects and at the same time help readers meet national content knowledge standards and benchmarks. HATCHET: a Novel Study Literature Guide | Comprehension Questions | Classroom Teaching S. G. Adams, 2020-05-21 Are you thinking of having your class read Gary Paulsen's novel HATCHET? Do you need worksheets to assess students' comprehension for each chapter? If yes, the mega 225-page novel study may be of help to you. As a teacher, I was reluctant to read HATCHET to my class but changed my mind after reading the novel. Some students may love to read about characters having daring adventures in a wilderness setting. HATCHET is a real page-turner and will keep students wanting to read more when their other work is done. It is a Canadian story about a thirteen-year-old boy who flies north to visit his father for the summer He has a big secret and it affects him deeply During the flight north something happens inside the bush plane and the protagonist is challenged to make a life defying decision HATCHET is truly a Coming of age and Bildungsroman novel What happens to the main character will stir and stay with readers long after they finish the last page This novel study carefully deconstructs each chapter and pulls from the text information that will cause students to think about their own lives in comparison There are various types of questions that utilize Howard Gardner s Intelligences prompt online internet research stimulate classroom discussions and encourage higher level learning Students learn to analyze synthesize and sift data by filling in the blanks circling true or false questions selecting from a multiple choice or providing his her personal opinion It is an excellent novel study for your upcoming term Pilgrim's Progress Novel Guide Shan
