Big Media, Big Money Ronald V. Bettig,Jeanne Lynn Hall,2012-05-04 Big Media Big Money is a lively and scathing critique of the contemporary communications industry examining how media ownership and the profit making motive affect the messages we receive in alarming ways Through close readings of recent news events and critical examination of corporate influence Bettig and Hall conclude that current interconnections among media big business government and education pose a serious threat to democratic communications The second edition includes three new chapters covering the contemporary Hollywood film industry the changing landscape of the music industry and ad creep the proliferation of advertising into previously ad free venues such as schools and children s television programming Dark Forces at Work Cynthia J. Miller,A. Bowdoin Van Riper,2019-11-06 Dark Forces at Work examines the role of race class gender religion and the economy as they are portrayed in and help construct horror narratives across a range of films and eras These larger social forces not only create the context for our cinematic horrors but serve as connective tissue between fantasy and lived reality as well While several of the essays focus on name horror films such as IT Get Out Hellraiser and Don t Breathe the collection also features essays focused on horror films produced in Asia Europe and Latin America and on American classic thrillers such as Alfred Hitchcock s Psycho Key social issues addressed include the war on terror poverty the housing crisis and the Time s Up movement The volume grounds its analysis in the films rather than theory in order to explore the ways in which institutions identities and ideologies work within the horror genre Censored 2003 Peter Phillips,Project Censored,2011-01-04 The yearly volumes of Censored in continuous publication since 1976 and since 1995 available through Seven Stories Press is dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship The top stories are listed democratically in order of importance according to students faculty and a national panel of judges Each of the top stories is presented at length alongside updates from the investigative reporters who broke the stories Design for Life Stuart Walker,2017-04-21 Stuart Walker s design work has been described as life changing inspiring disturbing and ferocious Drawing on an extraordinarily diverse range of sources and informed by creative practice Design for Life penetrates to the heart of modern culture and the malaise that underlies today s moral and environmental crises The author argues that this malaise is deep seated and fundamental to the modern outlook

He shows how our preoccupation with technological progress growth and the future has produced a constricted view of life one that is both destructive and self reinforcing Based on over twenty five years of scholarship and creative practice he demonstrates the vital importance of solitude contemplation inner growth and the present moment in developing a different course one that looks squarely at our current precarious situation while offering a positive hopeful way forward a way that is compassionate context based human scale ethically motivated and critically creative Design for Life is an intensely original contribution that will be essential reading for design practitioners and students Written in a clear accessible style it will also appeal to a broader readership especially anyone who is concerned with contemporary society s rising inequalities and environmental failings and is looking for a more constructive balanced and thoughtful direction
