Reckoning with Change in Yucatán Jason Ramsey, 2023-11-30 Reckoning with Change in Yucatán engages with how best to look upon and respond to change arguing that this debate is an important arena for negotiating local belonging and a force of transformation in its own right For residents of Chunchucmil a historic rural community in Yucatán Mexico history is anything but straightforward Living in what is both a defunct 19th century hacienda estate and a vibrant Catholic pilgrimage site Chunchucmil os reckon past present and future in radically different ways For example while some use the aging estate buildings to weave a history of economic decline and push for revitalization by hotel developers others highlight the growing fame of the Virgin of the Rosary in the attached church and vow to defend the site from developer interference By exploring how past and future are channeled through changing built environments landscapes sacred relics and legal documents this ethnographic study details how the politics of change provide Chunchucmil os with a common language for debating commitments to place and each another in the present Against Western notions of History as a relatively coherent account of change the book suggests we reframe it as an ongoing performance that is always fractured democratic and morally tinged

American Sinographies Ana María Ramírez Gómez,2025-09-22 Within the world mappings of cultural representation the transatlantic is the route that has monopolized our imaginaries about the self and the other This book studies an alternative trajectory the Latin American travel writing of the journey to China from the 19th century to the dawn of the Cultural Revolution 1843 1966 Through a wide constellation of texts it offers an in depth comparative analysis of how travelers from Colombia Peru and Chile imagined interpreted and represented the different Chinas they witnessed Intercepted mainly by literary criticism the text is prioritized as the main point of departure to contextualize and identify the political as well as the poetical effects that this off the beaten path encounter represented Close attention is also paid to the transformation of the conditions that surrounded the Latin American production of meanings of China as well as the change that China had as an idea throughout these decades Through these pages it is argued that from the voyage of the lettered Creole to the Qing empire to the trip of the red tourist to Communist China this encounter and the writing of it became a space to reimagine and redraw Latin Americanness from other world coordinates

The Republican Tradition in Europe H. A. L. Fisher, 2013-06-17 First published in 1911 this pioneering and ambitious work provides a history of the evolution of republican thought and practice in Europe from the fall of the Roman Empire to the beginning of the twentieth century Based a series of lectures delivered by the author at Lowell Institute in 1910 this is a comprehensive treatment of the subject which moves deftly from the political thought of the middle ages through to the rise of Protestantism the wave of revolution across Europe in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries concluding with an analysis of the republican cause and the permanence of the Republican idea in the consciousness of Europe
