Enacting History Scott Magelssen,Rhona Justice-Malloy,2011-03-18 Enacting History is a collection of new essays exploring the world of historical performances The volume focuses on performances outside the traditional sphere of theatre among them living history museums battle reenactments pageants renaissance festivals and adventure tourism destinations

This volume argues that the recent surge in such performances have raised significant questions about the need for interest in and value of such nontraditional theater. Many of these performances claim a greater or lesser degree of historical accuracy or authenticity and the authors tease out the representational and historiographic issues related to these arguments. How for instance are issues of race, ethnicity and gender dealt with at museums that purport to be accurate windows into the past? How are politics and labor issues handled in local or state funded institutions that rely on volunteer performers? How do tourists' expectations shape the choices made by would be purveyors of the past? Where do matters of taste or censorship enter in when reconciling the archival evidence with a family friendly mission? Essays in the collection address among other subjects reenactments of period cookery and cuisine at a Maryland renaissance festival, the roles of women as represented at Minnesota's premiere living history museum, Historic Fort Snelling and the Lewis and Clark bicentennial play as cultural commemoration. The editors argue that historical performances like these regardless of their truth telling claims are an important means to communicate, document and even shape history and allow for a level of participation and accessibility that is unique to performance. Enacting History is an entertaining and informative account of the public's fascination with acting out and watching history and of the diverse methods of fulfilling this need. Teaching American History with Art Masterpieces Bobbi Chertok, Goody Hirshfeld, Marilyn Rosh, 1998. Eight full color reproductions of art masterpieces provide an electrifying focus on events in American history: the Trail of Tears, Crossing the Delaware, the Civil War, the First Thanksgiving, Paul Revere's Ride, Pioneers, the Underground Railroad and Immigration. Each teaching unit includes an exploration of the painting, historical information and a reproducible U.S.A. Yesterday newspaper and other activities.
