Maternal Health Consultant Training Manual Sekesa Berry, 2021-05-27 Catalogue of Nutrition Training Manuals for Health Professionals, Trainers, and Field Workers in Developing Countries, 1987 A Training Manual in Appropriate Community Technology, 1982 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, Women and Social Movements in Latin America Lynn Stephen, 2010-01-01 Women's grassroots activism in Latin America combines a commitment to basic survival for women and their children with a challenge to women's subordination to men. Women activists insist that issues such as rape, battering and reproductive control cannot be divorced from women's concerns about housing, food, land and medical care. This innovative comparative study explores six cases of women's grassroots activism in Mexico, El Salvador, Brazil and Chile. Lynn Stephen communicates the ideas, experiences and perceptions of women who participate in collective action while she explains the structural conditions and ideological discourses that set the context within which women act and interpret their experiences. She includes revealing interviews with activists, detailed histories of organizations and movements and a theoretical discussion of gender, collective identity and feminist anthropology and methods. Low-cost Rural Health Care and Health Manpower Training Frances M. Delaney, 1977 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States. Superintendent of Documents, 1977 February issue includes Appendix entitled Directory of United States Government periodicals and subscription publications. Iyioha, 2019-12-10 Despite some significant advances in the creation and protection of rights affecting women's health, these do not always translate into actual health benefits for women. This collection asks: What is an effective law and what influences law's effectiveness or ineffectiveness? What dynamics, elements and conditions come together to limit law's capacity to achieve instrumental goals for women's health and the advancement of women's health rights? The book presents an integrated, co-referential and sustained critical discussion of the normative and constitutive reasons for law's limited effectiveness in the field of women's health. It offers comprehensive and cohesive explanatory accounts of law's limits and for the first time in the field introduces a distinction between formal and substantive effectiveness of laws Its approach is trans systemic multi jurisdictional and comparative with a focus on six countries in North America Europe Asia and Africa and international human rights case law based on matters arising from Hungary Portugal Spain Slovakia the Czech Republic Peru and Bolivia The book will be a valuable resource for educators students lawyers rights advocates and policymakers working in women s health socio legal studies human rights feminist legal studies and legal philosophy more broadly

Global Patient Safety John Tingle, Clayton Ó Néill, Morgan Shimwell, 2018-08-15 This book explores patient safety themes in developed developing and transitioning countries A foundation premise is the concept of reverse innovation as mutual learning from the chapters challenges traditional assumptions about the construction and location of knowledge This edited collection can be seen to facilitate global learning This book will hopefully form a bridge for those countries seeking to enhance their patient safety policies Contributors to this book challenge many supposed generalisations about human societies including consideration of how medical care is mediated within those societies and how patient safety is assured or compromised By introducing major theories from the developing world in the book readers are encouraged to reflect on their impact on the patient safety and the health quality debate The development of practical patient safety policies for wider use is also encouraged The volume presents a ground breaking perspective by exploring fundamental issues relating to patient safety through different academic disciplines It develops the possibility of a new patient safety and health quality synthesis and discourse relevant to all concerned with patient safety and health quality in a global context

Assessment of Young Developmentally Disabled Children Theodore D. Wachs, Robert Sheehan, 2013-06-29 Our knowledge of the cognitive and social emotional functioning of developmentally disabled infants and preschoolers derives in large part from our assessment of such children This book has been developed to familiarize readers with the characteristics of developmentally disabled children and to introduce to readers aspects of measurement that are of relevance to the assessment of atypical infants and preschoolers The book has been developed with clinicians and prospective clinicians in mind These are individuals who are committed to the care and education of developmentally disabled infants and preschoolers and the families of those children The book has thus been written to provide support for the use of assessment data in planning early intervention programs Of special note in the development of this edited book is that it is divided into four major parts with interrelated chapters in each part The authors of chapters in Parts II and III had access to the chapters in Part I before writing their chapters The summary chapters found in Part IV were similarly written by authors having access to all chapters in Parts I III This approach to the development of an edited book was chosen as a way of ensuring an integration of major concepts throughout the book This process is also a reflection of our belief that assessment is an interdisciplinary process involving the synthesis of a number of diverse interests

Changing Birth in the Andes Lucia Guerra-Reyes, 2021-04-30 In 1997 when Lucia Guerra Reyes began research in Peru she observed a profound disconnect between the birth care desires of health personnel and those of indigenous women Midwives and doctors would plead with her as the anthropologist to educate women about the dangerous inadequacy of their traditions They failed to see how their aim of achieving low rates of maternal mortality clashed with the experiences of local women who often feared public health centers where they could experience discrimination and verbal or physical abuse Mainly the women and their families sought a good birth which was normally a home birth that corresponded with Andean perceptions of health as a balance of bodily humors Peru s Intercultural Birthing Policy of 2005 was intended to solve these longstanding issues by recognizing indigenous cultural values and making biomedical care more accessible and desirable for indigenous women Yet many difficulties remain Guerra Reyes also gives ethnographic attention to health care workers She explains the class and educational backgrounds of traditional birth attendants and midwives interviews doctors and health care administrators and describes their interactions with local families Interviews with national policy makers put the program in context An Introduction to Global Health Delivery Joia Mukherjee,2022 In 2019 a child born in Japan will live to the age of 84 whereas a child born in Sierra Leone will only live until the age of 54 1 Similar disparities exist between rich and poor communities within countries 2 These differences in life expectancy are not caused by genetics biology or culture Health inequities are caused by poverty racism a lack of medical care and other social forces that influence health A critical analysis of the historical roots of this gross and systemic inequality and of the political economy that continues inequality is a fundamental part of the study of global health Bureau for Africa Program, Activity, and Reference Information

Home Affairs Committee,2008 Legitimizing Human Rights NGOs Obiora Chinedu Okafor,2006 A claim and empirical demonstration that if human rights NGOs in Nigeria are to popularly legitimise themselves then almost all of them must undergo a fundamental revision of form concept and activist methods Legitimising NGOs in Africa will grant a greater achievement of influence to those organisations this volume argues that only a transition to a mass movement model will ensure the legitimisation of most Nigerian and African human rights NGO communities Okafor builds a list of recommendations designed to be used as a blueprint for successfully popularising NGOs
