Political Education ,198?      How to Win ,1962      Everyday Peacebuilding through Democratic Political Education

Stephen L. Esquith,2025-06-15 Everyday peacebuilding through democratic political education is a necessary but not sufficient condition for limiting negative political emotions such as anger fear and resentment and for cultivating the political virtues needed for an alternative more democratic orientation towards power one that values and exercises power with other members of emergent political communities not power over them These demotic political virtues include self restraint resistance humility respect for the civic dignity of others non violent protest and the radical poise needed to cultivate and coordinate this constellation of political virtues For those who have been forcibly displaced or are only dimly aware of their complicity in this type of political violence to maintain a radically poised stance is a continuing process of democratic political education This book demonstrates how this notion of Radical Poise in theory and practice can be developed through a hybrid process of political education in one country Mali to contest the growth of violence and fear there and elsewhere      How to Win ,1984      Building Power, Sharpening Minds School of Unity and Liberation (SOUL),2007 For each workshop the manual provides the agenda forms charts and curriculum basics such as discussion starters activities and visuals to enable the facilitator to accomplish the educational goals      ENACTing Change Kathleen Cole,Robert W.
