Archives of Times Past Cynthia Kros, Geoffrey Blundell, Jan Boeyens, Sekibakiba Peter Lekgoathi, Amanda Esterhuysen, Grant McNulty, Rachel King, Hlonipha Mokoena, Lize Kriel, Fred Morton, Muchaparara Musemwa, Ndukuyakhe Ndlovu, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Himal Ramji, Justine Wintjes, 2022-02 Archives of Times Past explores particular sources of evidence on southern Africa's time before the colonial era. It gathers recent ideas about archives and archiving from scholars in southern Africa and elsewhere focusing on the question: How do we know or think we know what happened in the times before European colonialism? The essays by well-known historians, archaeologists and researchers engage these questions from a range of perspectives and in illuminating ways. Written from personal experience, they capture how these experts encountered their archives of knowledge beyond the textbook. The essays are written at a time when public discussion about the history of southern Africa before the colonial era is taking place more openly than at any other time in the last hundred years. They will appeal to students, academics, educationists, teachers, archivists and heritage museum practitioners and the general public.

Journal of the South African Institute of Mining and Metallurgy South African Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, 1907 In India and East Africa E-Indiya nase East Africa Davidson Don Tengo Jabavu, Tina Steiner, Mhlobo Jadezweni, Catherine Higgs, Evan M. Mwangi, 2020-02-01 A politician's journey to bring home Mahatma Gandhi's teachings home to South Africa in the wake of WWII. In November 1949 Davidson Don Tengo D D T Jabavu, the South African politician, Methodist lay preacher and retired professor of African languages and Latin at Fort Hare University in the Eastern Cape, set out on a four-month trip to attend the World Pacifist Meeting in India. The conference brought together delegates from over thirty countries to reflect on how Mahatma Gandhi's life and teachings could inform pacifist work in the post-World War II era. Jabavu wrote an isiXhosa account of his journey up the east coast of Africa and to different parts of India, which was first published in 1951 by Lovedale Press. His narrative contains wide-ranging reflections on the fauna and flora of the changing landscape, on intriguing social interactions during his travels, and on the conference itself where he considered what lessons Gandhian principles might yield for oppressed South Africans engaged in struggles for freedom and dignity. He incorporates accounts of chance meetings with important figures of post-independence India and of the anti-colonial struggle in East Africa as well as with members of the American civil rights movement. His commentary on non-violent resistance and on the dangers of nationalism when coupled with militarism and racism enriches the existing archive of intellectual and political exchange between Africa and India from a black South African perspective. This new edition includes Jabavu's travelogue in the original isiXhosa with an English translation by the late anthropologist Cecil Wele Manona. Tina Steiner's introductory chapter examines the networks of international solidarity and friendship that Jabavu helped to strengthen in the course of his travels. A chapter by Mhlobo W Jadezweni, whose updating of the original isiXhosa orthography has made Jabavu's text accessible to new generations of readers, considers the richness of Jabavu's isiXhosa style as a contribution to the archive of great African language literature Catherine Higgs provides biographical sketches of D D T Jabavu and Cecil Wele Manona which situate this travelogue within the broader context of their lives Evan M Mwangi's Afterword is a reflection on the historical and political significance of making African language texts available to readers across Africa The Mining Industry ,2013-09-26 This extensive 1897 report on the South African mining industry sheds light on the British Empire's economic history African Review ,1897 Public Sociology Michael Burawoy,2021-09-08 Michael Burawoy has helped to reshape the theory and practice of sociology across the Western world Public Sociology is his most thoroughgoing attempt to explore what a truly committed engaged sociology should look like in the twenty first century Burawoy looks back on the defining moments of his intellectual journey exploring his pivotal early experiences as a researcher such as his fieldwork in a Zambian copper mine and a Chicago factory He recounts his time as a graduate and professor during the ideological ferment in sociology departments of the 1970s and explores how his experiences intersected with a changing political and intellectual world up to the present Recalling Max Weber Burawoy argues that sociology is much more than just a discipline it is a vocation to be practiced everywhere and by everyone Geological Survey Professional Paper ,1980 Geological Survey Professional Paper Geological Survey (U.S.),1981 Getaway 21 Years of African Travel Writing Cameron Ewart-Smith,2010 This wonderful collection of travel writing captures the very best of Getaway's articles over the past 21 years of travel exploration and adventure Farmer's Weekly ,1928 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1893 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1893 Print, Text and Book Cultures in South Africa Andrew van der Vlies,2012-09-01 An explanation of the unique role of the book and book collecting in South Africa due to the apartheid This book explores the power of print and the politics of the book in South Africa from a range of disciplinary perspectives historical bibliographic literary critical sociological and cultural studies The essays collected here by leading international scholars address a range of topics as varied as the role of print cultures in contests over the nature of the colonial public sphere in the nineteenth century orthography iimbongi orature and the canon book collecting and libraries print and transnationalism Indian Ocean cosmopolitanisms books in war how the fates of South African texts locally and globally have been affected by their material instantiations photocomics and other ephemera censorship during and after apartheid books about art and books as art local academic publishing and the challenge of book history for literary and cultural criticism in contemporary South Africa North-western Christian Advocate ,1899 Geological Magazine Henry Woodward,1923 Culture in Chaos Stephen C. Lubkemann,2010-03-15 Fought in the wake of a decade of armed struggle against colonialism the Mozambican civil war lasted from 1977 to 1992 claiming hundreds of thousands of lives while displacing millions more As conflicts across the globe span decades and generations Stephen C Lubkemann suggests that we need a fresh perspective on war when it becomes the context for normal life rather than an exceptional event that disrupts it Culture in Chaos calls for a new point of departure in the ethnography of war that investigates how the inhabitants of war zones live under trying new conditions and how culture and social relations are transformed as a result Lubkemann focuses on how Ndaou social networks were fragmented by wartime displacement and the profound effect this had on gender relations Demonstrating how wartime migration and post conflict return were shaped by social struggles and interests that had little to do with the larger political reasons for the war Lubkemann contests the assumption that wartime migration is always involuntary His critical reexamination of displacement and his engagement with broader theories of agency and social change will be of interest to anthropologists political scientists historians and demographers and to anyone who works in a war zone or with refugees and migrants The Christian Advocate ,1900
