The Comfort Women Hoax J. Mark Ramseyer,Jason M. Morgan,2024-01-23 During World War II the Japanese military extended Japan s civilian licensing regime for domestic brothels to those next to its overseas bases It did so for a simple reason to impose the strenuous health standards necessary to control the venereal disease that had debilitated its troops in earlier wars In turn these brothels dubbed comfort stations recruited prostitutes through variations on the standard indenture contracts used by licensed brothels in both Korea and Japan The party line in Western academia though is that these comfort women were dragooned into sex slavery at bayonet point by Japanese infantry But as the authors of this book show that narrative originated as a hoax perpetrated by a Japanese communist writer in the 1980s It was then spread by a South Korean organization with close ties to the Communist North Ramseyer and Morgan discuss how these women really came to be in Japanese military comfort stations Some took the jobs because they were tricked by fraudulent recruiters Some were under pressure from abusive parents But the rest of the women seem to have been driven by the same motivation as most prostitutes throughout history want of money Indeed the notion that these comfort women became prostitutes by any other means has no basis in documentary history Serious intellectuals of all political perspectives in both South Korea and Japan have understood this for years Ramseyer and Morgan s findings caused a firestorm in Japanese Studies academia For explaining that the women became prostitutes of their own volition both authors of this book found themselves cancelled In this book the authors detail both the history of the comfort women and their own persecution by academic peers Only in the West and only through brutal stratagems of censorship and ostracism has the myth of bayonet point conscription survived

Real Lives in the Sixteenth Century Rebecca Ard Boone,2018-04-19 Real Lives in the Sixteenth Century presents a global history using four sets of biographies to illustrate similar situations in different geographical regions The vibrant narratives span four continents and include the following pairs Henry IV of France and Hideyoshi of Japan H rrem Sultan Roxelana of the Ottoman Empire and Lady Zheng of the Ming Dynasty Afonso I of Kongo and Elizabeth I of England and Pope Clement VII and Moctezuma II of Mexico Through exploring the lives of eight individuals from a variety of cultural settings this book encourages students to think about the big questions surrounding human interactions and the dynamics of power It introduces them to a number of key historical concepts such as feudalism dynasticism religious syncretism and slavery and is a springboard into the history of the wider world blending together aspects of political cultural intellectual and material history Accessibly written and containing timelines genealogical tables and a number of illustrations for each biography Real Lives in the Sixteenth Century is the ideal introductory text for undergraduates of pre modern World History and of the sixteenth century in particular

Comfort Women and Sex in the Battle Zone is an exhaustive examination of the controversial issue of comfort women who provided sexual services to Japanese soldiers before and during World War II This book provides extensive documents and narratives by witnesses to shed light on the reality of these women who worked in the battle zone

The book also covers Japan's political and diplomatic disagreements with neighboring nations in particular South Korea and China over this issue as well as other international reactions including the U S House of Representatives resolution that urged the Japanese government to apologize to former comfort women The book is an English translation of the Japanese version first published in 1999 and reprinted several times with additional sections covering recent developments

Teaching & Researching Big History: Exploring a New Scholarly Field Leonid Grinin, David Baker, Esther Quaedackers, Andrey Korotayev, 2014-06-30 According to the working definition of the International Big History Association Big History seeks to understand the integrated history of the Cosmos Earth Life and Humanity using the best available empirical evidence and scholarly methods In recent years Big History has been developing very fast indeed Big History courses are taught in the schools and universities of several dozen countries Hundreds of researchers are involved in studying and teaching Big History The unique approach of Big History the interdisciplinary genre of history that deals with the grand narrative of 13.8 billion years has opened up a vast amount of research agendas Big History brings together constantly updated information from the scientific disciplines and merges it with the contemplative realms of philosophy and the humanities It also provides a connection between the past present and future Big History is a colossal and extremely heterogeneous field of research encompassing all the forms of existence and all timescales Unsurprisingly Big History may be presented in very different aspects and facets In this volume the Big History is presented and discussed in three different ways In its first part Big History is explored in terms of methodology theories of knowledge as well as showcasing the personal approach of scholars to Big History The second section comprises such articles that could clarify Big History's main trends and laws The third part of this book explores the nature of teaching Big History as well as profiling a number of educational methods This volume will be useful both for those who study interdisciplinary macroproblems and for specialists working in focused directions as well as for those who are interested in evolutionary issues of Astrophysics Geology Biology History Anthropology Linguistics and other areas of study More than that this edition will challenge and excite your vision of your own life and the exciting new discoveries going on around us

Traditions ; Encounters, Volume B: From 1000 to 1800 Jerry Bentley, Herbert Ziegler, 2007-10-09 Over a million students at thousands of schools have learned about world history with the best selling book for the course Traditions and Encounters A Global Perspective on the Past Using the twin themes of traditions and encounters the text emphasizes both the distinctive patterns of historical development within individual societies and the profound results of interactions between different societies Exploring the historical record of cross cultural interactions and exchanges Traditions and Encounters places the world of contemporary globalization in historical context The book helps students understand the world's major societies and shows how the interactions of these societies affect history throughout the world The authors tell a coherent and digestible story of the past that is not weighed down by excessive detail so instructors are able to incorporate additional readings This edition provides an updated map program as well as the latest scholarship It also moves Primary Source Investigator online improving access for students to work with primary sources      Globalistics and Globalization Studies George Modelski.,Anton L. Grinin,Valentina M. Bondarenko.,Ivan A. Aleshkovski,Alexey I. Andreev,Julia V. Zinkina,Oleg A. Alekseenko,Olga G. Leonova,David Christian,Tatyana L. Shestova,Craig G. Benjamin,Sergey V. Tsirel,William R. Thompson,Kentaro Sakuwa,Mikhail A. Kaverin,Sergey Yu. Malkov,Vladimir Maslov,Stanislav Ye. Bilyuga,Olga I. Davydova,Dmitry S. Malkov.,Lowell Gustafson,David Baker,Alexander V. Markov,Joseph Voros,Alexander D. Panov,2015-01-01 This yearbook is the fourth in the series with the title Globalistics and Globalization Studies The subtitle of the present volume is Global History Big History The point is that today our global world really demands global knowledge Thus there are a few actively developing multidisciplinary approaches and integral disciplines among which one can name Global Studies Global History and Big History They all provide a connection between the past present and future Big History with its vast and extremely heterogeneous field of research encompasses all the forms of existence and all timescales and brings together constantly updated information from the scientific disciplines and the humanities Global History is transnational or world history which examines history from a global perspective making a wide use of comparative history and of the history of multiple cultures and nations Global Studies express the view of systemic and epistemological unity of global processes Thus one may argue that Global Studies and Globalistics can well be combined with Global History and Big History and such a multi disciplinary approach can open wide horizons for the modern university education as it helps to form a global view of various processes      Safari Based Theology Dr. Enos Lwamba,2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people The author develops his proposed motif around a tri dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari mwanzo sasa and mwisho which provide keys to the African mindset He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective In addition to the literal safaris journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in future Inspired by both John Mbitis The African Concept of Time and Paul Hieberts The Flaw of the Excluded Middle the author utilizes biblical theological historical and contextual sources to make his point In the philosophical aspect of the safari the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea which he relates to development of theology and mission He refutes the western influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunting or tourist expedition to Africa Dr Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustines City of God John Bunyans The Pilgrims Progress and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message Its practical appeal makes Safari Based Theology a must read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset conception of divine truth and aspirations of the Greek mind the concept of safari does the same for the African This book is highly recommended for pastors missionaries and teachers as well as students of Bible and theology culture and missions and other related disciplines Maps of Time David Christian,2011-09 Introducing a novel perspective on the study of history David Christian views the interaction of the natural world with the more recent arrivals in flora fauna including human beings

Bentley,2014-02-05 Architects of World History presents an innovative collection of original essays by leading scholars associated with World History exploring through intellectual autobiography the ideas challenges and inspirations that are shaping the field Features original accessible contributions from pioneering scholars in the field Offers insights into the process of developing a workable world history research topic and the experience of professional life as a world historian Points to methodological challenges the scholar s current research agenda in relation to the development of world history and future directions anticipated for key areas within world history Korean "Comfort Women" Pyong Gap Min,2021-03-26 Arguably the most brutal crime committed by the Japanese military during the Asia

Pacific war was the forced mobilization of 50 000 to 200 000 Asian women to military brothels to sexually serve Japanese soldiers The majority of these women died unable to survive the ordeal Those survivors who came back home kept silent about their brutal experiences for about fifty years In the late 1980s the women s movement in South Korea helped start the redress movement for the victims encouraging many survivors to come forward to tell what happened to them With these testimonies the redress movement gained strong support from the UN the United States and other Western countries Korean Comfort Women synthesizes the previous major findings about Japanese military sexual slavery and legal recommendations and provides new findings about the issues comfort women faced for an English language audience It also examines the transnational redress movement revealing that the Japanese government has tried to conceal the crime of sexual slavery and to resolve the women s human rights issue with diplomacy and economic power
