How Border Peripheries are Changing the Nature of Arab States Maha Yahya, 2023-01-01 This book addresses the multiple dimensions of the limited reach or breakdown of central authority in border regions of Arab states and their implications for state sovereignty and modes of governance These include the emergence of illicit networks of exchange the rise of new nonstate actors in border regions including paramilitary or jihadi groups and the transformation of border areas into areas of regional conflict Collectively the essays in this volume address such processes which have been observable in conflict stricken countries such as Syria Iraq and Yemen and in fragile political or economic contexts like the ones in Lebanon Tunisia and Algeria as well as in relatively stable Emirates such as Kuwait The contributions also shed light on how border peripheries in the Arab world have impacted the center of political and economic power in their states West African Studies An Atlas of the Sahara-Sahel Geography, Economics and Security OECD, Sahel and West Africa Club, 2014-12-19 This book explains the structure and geographical and organisational mobility of criminal and migratory movements in the Sahara and the Sahel with a view to helping establish better development strategies for the region Commission Consultative Du Trafic de L'opium. Gobero Elena A. A. Garcea, 2013 This book presents the archaeological anthropological and environmental data collected during the 2005 and 2006 field seasons at Gobero Security Sector Governance in Francophone West Africa Alan Bryden, Boubacar N'Diaye, 2011 Experience shows that successful democratic transitions need to be underpinned by a security sector that is effective well managed and accountable to the state and its citizens This is why it is so important to carefully examine security sector governance dynamics in contexts where security has often remained a reserved domain Understanding the issues and perspectives that divide political elites the security sector and citizens is the only way to develop security sector reform programs that are legitimate and sustainable at the national level Through drawing on the close contextual knowledge of practitioners researchers and diverse local actors this book supports this goal by analyzing security sector governance dynamics in each of the nine Francophone countries within West Africa From this basis strengths and weaknesses are analyzed local capacities evaluated and entry points identified to promote democratic security sector governance in the West African region Series Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces DCAF Society, Culture, and Technology in Africa S. Terry Childs, 1994 The book includes eight papers focusing on the interaction of society culture and technology in Africa over the last two million years The goal is to highlight the research being conducted in Africa on this broad topic and thereby facilitate communication between scholars of sociotechnical systems worldwide African Yearbook of International Law/Annuaire Africain De Droit International Abdulqawi A. Yusuf, 1997-08-01 The African Yearbook of International Law provides an intellectual forum for the systematic analysis and scientific dissection of issues of international law as they apply to Africa as well as Africa's contribution to the progressive development of international law. It contributes to the promotion, acceptance of and respect for the principles of international law as well as to the encouragement of the teaching, study, dissemination and wider appreciations of international law in Africa. A clear articulation of Africa's views on the various aspects of international law based on the present realities of the continent as well as on Africa's civilization, culture, philosophy and history will undoubtedly contribute to a better understanding among nations. The African Yearbook of International Law plays an important role in examining the tensions underlying the State in Africa and by shedding more light on the causes of the fragility of African State institutions so as to facilitate the identification of appropriate remedies. The tension and interrelationships among issues such as territorial integrity, self-determination, ethnic diversity and nation building are constantly addressed. Development, human rights and democratization in Africa are also the subject of continuous attention and examination. The Special Theme of this volume is Civil Conflicts in Africa. Part I: Les conflits internes en Afrique. 1ere partie.

Africa's World War Gerard Prunier, 2008-12-31. The Rwandan genocide sparked a horrific bloodbath that swept across sub-Saharan Africa, ultimately leading to the deaths of some four million people. In this extraordinary history of the recent wars in Central Africa, Gerard Prunier offers a gripping account of how one grisly episode laid the groundwork for a sweeping and disastrous upheaval. Prunier vividly describes the grisly aftermath of the Rwandan genocide when some two million refugees, a third of Rwanda's population, fled to exile in

Zaire in 1996 The new Rwandan regime then crossed into Zaire and attacked the refugees slaughtering upwards of 400 000 people The Rwandan forces then turned on Zaire s despotic President Mobutu and with the help of a number of allied African countries overthrew him But as Prunier shows the collapse of the Mobutu regime and the ascension of the corrupt and erratic Laurent D sir Kabila created a power vacuum that drew Rwanda Uganda Angola Zimbabwe Sudan and other African nations into an extended and chaotic war The heart of the book documents how the whole core of the African continent became engulfed in an intractable and bloody conflict after 1998 a devastating war that only wound down following the assassination of Kabila in 2001 Prunier not only captures all this in his riveting narrative but he also indicts the international community for its utter lack of interest in what was then the largest conflict in the world Praise for the hardcover The most ambitious of several remarkable new books that reexamine the extraordinary tragedy of Congo and Central Africa since the Rwandan genocide of 1994 New York Review of Books One of the first books to lay bare the complex dynamic between Rwanda and Congo that has been driving this disaster Jeffrey Gettleman New York Times Book Review Lucid meticulously researched and incisive Prunier s will likely become the standard account of this under reported tragedy Publishers Weekly

Africa and France Dominic Richard David Thomas,2013 This stimulating and insightful book reveals how increased control over immigration has changed cultural and social production in theatre literature and even museum construction Dominic Thomas s analysis unravels the complex cultural and political realities of long standing mobility between Africa and Europe Thomas questions the attempt to place strict limits on what it means to be French or European and offers a sense of what must happen to bring about a renewed sense of integration and global Frenchness
