The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music Ruth M. Stone, 2017-09-25 Explores key themes in African music that have emerged in recent years a subject usually neglected in country by country coverage emphasizes the contexts of musical performance unlike studies that offer static interpretations isolated from other performing traditions presents the fresh insights and analyses of musicologists and anthropologists of diverse national origins African Asian European and American Charts the flow and influence of music The Encyclopedia also charts the musical interchanges that followed the movement of people and ideas across the continent including cross regional musical influences throughout Africa Islam and its effect on African music spread of guitar music Kru mariners of Liberia Latin American influences on African music musical interchanges in local contexts crossovers between popular and traditional practices Downloadable resources included Also includes nine maps and 96 music examples Hymns and Constructions of Race Erin Johnson-Williams, Philip

Burnett, 2024-02-07 Hymns and Constructions of Race Mobility Agency De Coloniality examines how the hymn historically and today has reinforced negotiated and resisted constructions of race It brings together diverse perspectives from musicology ethnomusicology theology anthropology performance studies history and postcolonial scholarship to show how the hymn has perpetuated generated and challenged racial identities The global range of contributors cover a variety of historical and geographical contexts with case studies from China and Brazil to Suriname and South Africa They explore the hymn as a product of imperialism and settler colonialism and as a vehicle for sonic oppression and or resistance within and beyond congregational settings The volume contends that the lived tradition of hymn singing with its connections to centuries of global Christian mission is a particularly apt lens for examining both local and global negotiations of race power and identity It will be relevant for scholars interested in religion music race and postcolonialism African Art Music in

Migration and Christian Identity in Congo (DRC) Emma Wild-Wood,2008-08-31 Christianity and migration have greatly influenced society and culture of sub Saharan Africa yet their mutual impact is rarely studied Through oral history research in north eastern Congo DRC this book studies the migration of Anglicans and the subsequent reconfiguring of their Christian identity It engages with issues of religious contextualisation revivalism and the rise of Pentecostalism It examines shifting ethnic national gender and generational expressions the influence of tradition contemporaneity local needs and international networks to reveal mobile group identities developing through migration Borrowing the metaphor of home from those interviewed the book suggests in what ways religious affiliation aids a process of belonging The result is an original exploration of important themes in an often neglected region of Africa Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2005 Bible Stories Bella Stevenson,2018-03-16 Three boys and four girls were already living with Mama when Osas came to join them as the eighth domestics servant She had a four room apartment in the Warders Barracks Abude where she was the prisons Department head cook At the end of every day the remnants of the raw food stuffs from the kitchen were shared into three parts Two thirds went to the Chief Warder s house while Mama Benin had the rest The same went for palm oil salt mutton and firewood So food was not her problem mama Benin never spent a kobo of her salary on food stuffs She was thus in a position to maintain a large number of domestic servants All the seven boys and girls living with her were off spring of her distant relations Osas abalone was her nephew Mama Benin was a strict disciplinarian She never spared the rod The slightest offence by any of her servants attracted heavy flogging Even when a neighbor intervened she never failed to use the cane The only thing she did if she like the intruder as she always called person was to reduce the number of strokes to be given out to any offender who had an interceder The offender might be lucky to have just twelve lashes Sometimes she might be infuriated by the plea from a neighbour and so increase the number of strokes to twenty four Tired to receiving entreaties from any one on behalf of any offending servant she devised another method of flogging her offenders She kept a number of canes in her bedroom As soon as a servant committed any offence she sent the culprit to fetch something for her from her bedroom She was always obeyed Seconds later she would close up with the offender in her bedroom lock up the door and empty as many canes she wanted on the culprit The best the pleading neighbours could do was to plead for mercy for she would open the windows Such pleas normally fell on deaf ears as she would open the door release the culprit only when she was satisfied that she had meted out of the offender sever punishment as she pleased The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular ,1910 The Garland Handbook of African Music Ruth M. Stone,2010-04-02

The Garland Handbook of African Music is comprised of essays from The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music Volume 1 Africa 1997 Revised and updated the essays offer detailed regional studies of the different musical cultures of Africa and examine the ways in which music helps to define the identity of this particular area Part One provides an in depth introduction to Africa Part Two focuses on issues and processes such as notation and oral tradition dance in communal life and intellectual property Part Three focuses on the different regions countries and cultures of Africa with selected regional case studies The second edition has been expanded to include exciting new scholarship that has been conducted since the first edition was published Questions for Critical Thinking at the end of each major section guide and focus attention on what musical and cultural issues arise when one studies the music of Africa issues that might not occur in the study of other musics of the world An accompanying audio compact disc offers musical examples of some of the music of Africa
