Getting to the Core of English Language Arts, Grades 6-12 Vicky Giouroukakis, Maureen Connolly, 2012-04-19

Design effective CCSS aligned lessons for secondary students. If you want to revamp your secondary English Language Arts curriculum to reflect the Common Core State Standards, this book is the perfect resource. The authors move the implementation of the CCSS for ELA from the abstract to the concrete by providing adaptable exemplar lesson plans in each of the CCSS strands: reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Each lesson template includes intended grade level, band, timeline and the type of student writing involved. Connections to supporting theory including the Backward Design model. Variations to differentiate lessons for diverse student populations. Ways to link the lesson to technology and service learning. Reproducible handouts.

Teaching Writing in the Middle School Anna J. Small, Roseboro, 2013-11-13

More than 670,000 middle school teachers, grades 6-8, are responsible for educating nearly 13 million students in public and private schools. Thousands more teachers join these ranks annually, especially in the South and West where ethnic populations are ballooning. Teachers and administrators seek practical, time-efficient ways of teaching language arts to 21st century adolescents in increasingly multicultural, technologically diverse, socially networked communities. They seek sound understanding, practical advice and proven strategies in order to connect diverse literature to 21st century societies while meeting state and professional standards like the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts. This book offers strategies and resources that work.

Belonging and Becoming Barbara Cervone, Kathleen Cushman, 2017-11-14

Despite growing attention to the importance of grit and other character traits for achievement developing them in students rarely finds its way into secondary school curricula Authors Barbara Cervone and Kathleen Cushman investigate the exceptions telling the stories of five high schools with a national reputation for infusing rigorous academics with social and emotional learning which results in demonstrable benefits for students Based on extensive interviews and on site visits the book identifies six elements that all of these schools have in common including advisories and other structural supports for students and teachers rituals and other means for establishing an intentional reflective and respectful community as well as a firm commitment to restorative justice and a broad and engaging curriculum that includes service learning Featuring the voices of educators and students alike Belonging and Becoming not only shows how these schools stand out for their high degree of caring and success but makes a strong case for why other schools should be inspired to take up the challenge and replicate their efforts Challenge
