Talking with My Mouth Full Bonny Wolf, 2013-12-10 What does America really eat Which recipes do real home cooks turn to again and again More often than not they are dishes handed down from great aunts and painstakingly copied out of smudged recipe boxes rather than the creations of celebrity chefs Bonny Wolf food commentator for NPR's Weekend Edition writes about the great regional and family food traditions in this country birthday cake and dinner party food hearty American breakfasts and Fourth of July picnic dishes In Talking with My Mouth Full she writes stories about food and also about the people who eat it This book gives a snapshot of the American traditions that have contributed to what and how we eat Food trends come and go but many delightful national treasures bundt cake barbecue roast chicken fair food are timeless Each of Bonny Wolf's chapters whether she's writing about true regional specialties like Minnesota's wild rice Texas Blue Bell ice cream or Maryland's famous crab cakes or about family favorites like noodle pudding or Irish raisin soda bread ends with a perfectly chosen group of recipes tantalizing and time tested In the tradition of Laurie Colwin's Home Cooking Talking with My Mouth Full is a book you will turn to over and over for wonderful food writing and recipes for comfort food a great nosh or the ideal covered dish to take to a potluck supper

Global Cakes: 80 Recipes for Traveling Without Leaving Home, 2024-05-17 When I first came to consider how to compile and select a personal collection of 80 amazing cakes from all around the world the task that was set out in front of me seemed almost impossible There were just so many delicious choices from so many baking traditions How could I possibly narrow down a selection from all across the baking globe to just 80 cakes when deep down inside me I knew that I could easily include three times the number Well the truth is I simply had to settle on those cakes that I truly loved and felt would convey the wonder of the vast variety of cakes to be found from across all the continents of the globe Cakes that I could happily cook and eat time and time again Cakes that gave a sense of wonder and travel and occasionally eccentricity But always cakes that tasted exquisite and that would be received with hungry appreciation Some classics such as the French croquembouche seemed like they might be an insurmountable project for most so I combined it with the simplicity of the modern cupcake and the fun of constructing something that doesn't take all day I love the whimsical and the unexpected and I haven't been able to resist giving a few of the cakes my own personal take and twists They might not be completely true to the tradition with regard to technique or ingredients but they will trust me be every bit as delicious as the originals Some might even think more so We now appear to live in a world where we are all meant to love to bake And more and more of us do indeed absolutely love to bake I have been a pastry chef for more than thirty years now and so I couldn't be happier with the ever growing love and fascination with the wonderful world of cakes and baking in general And it is a world a very wide world indeed The cakes of France and Europe differ so very greatly from those sweet delights coming from the ovens of say Asia or the Middle East different flavours and techniques bringing differing results but with one single unifying truth they are all absolutely delicious to eat I love the fact that cakes can incorporate flavours and ingredients as wide ranging and diverse as almonds walnuts and pistachios contrasting with cakes emitting heavenly scents of cinnamon ginger and nutmeg cakes with luscious soft cheese the finest honey plumped juicy raisins glutinous rice flour sweet potatoes pandan essence the freshest of tree picked fruits and let's not forget those which are doused in the finest brandies rums and wines of a locale This is a world of passionate and creative bakers each creating a cake with their country's most treasured produce expertly crafted and sculpted A global cake heaven My heaven and I hope soon to be yours too
