

When the children come in:

When children come in, they will be quite nervous and will need to see a big smiling face. It is a good idea to get down to the children's level as much as possible when welcoming them. You might want

Transition Day Plan – Mixed Reception/Year 1

The most important objective on transition day is to help the children settle by building relationships with them and letting them get to know the classroom and outdoor area.

Setting Up:

It is a good idea to set up some activities based on your knowledge of the children's interests. If parents have completed a settling in form or you have visited the nurseries, you will have some ideas.

Activity ideas to set up in the environment aimed at Reception children to play:

Water with bottles, jugs, cups, funnels etc.	Have a quiet cornered space for children to go to if they are feeling overwhelmed. Perhaps add some books and music.
Small and medium sized, open, blocks.	Playdough with rollers etc.
Wash tubs with mud, flowers & herbs.	Pens and paper for drawing set up.
Flaming station so children can use glue guns and paper patterns to make homes.	Construction area set up in an exciting way perhaps with some cars.

Activity ideas to set up in the environment aimed at Year 1 children to play:

Draw or paint a self-portrait, have some mirrors on the table. Try to show how you are feeling.	Write a message to a friend in the writing area.
Following and creating recipes in the food kitchen.	Have a quiet cornered space for children to go to if they are feeling overwhelmed. Perhaps add some books and music.
Make a birthday card for your age or your next birthday.	Play boards and no table games and cameras so children can take photos of their work.
Playdough colouring sheets.	Design sheets in the construction area.
