1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space weapons and launch them?	That U.S. suspend the prohibition of launching nuclear weapons	Not really
2. Would anyone benefit from the launch and retrieval of satellites?	They would certainly gain access to information that was denied. They would be able to observe military and civilian activities directly or indirectly	They might develop better a sense of international security, but the U.S. wouldn't want to let the Soviets develop things, planned weapons and conduct all kinds of things secretly.
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really	Some might be against because they would lose their advantage
4. Would the U.S. believe that the Soviet Union would really suspend its nuclear program?	Yes, the government had no reason to believe that it wouldn't comply	They knew the Soviet Union would not really suspend its nuclear program

2. Suppose the agreement simply to stop launching satellites was the only agreement made between the two nations. What would you think?

Answer: Because the government the Soviet Union was not the Soviet Union, they had not really said anything
