

AP History Long Essay Question (LEQ) Rubric (6 points)

Reporting Category	Scoring Criteria	Decision Rules
THESIS/CLAIM (0–1 pt)	1 pt. Responds to the prompt with a historically defensible thesis/claim that establishes a line of reasoning.	To earn this point, the thesis must make a claim that responds to the prompt, rather than merely restating or rephrasing the prompt. The thesis must consist of one or more sentences located in one place, either in the introduction or the conclusion.
CONTEXTUALIZATION (0–1 pt)	1 pt. Describes a broader historical context relevant to the prompt.	To earn this point, the response must relate the topic of the prompt to broader historical events, developments, or processes that occur before, during, or continue after the time frame of the question. This point is not awarded for merely a phrase or a reference.
EVIDENCE (0–2 pts)	1 pt. Provides specific examples of evidence relevant to the topic of the prompt. OR 2 pts. Supports an argument in response to the prompt using specific and relevant examples of evidence.	To earn one point, the response must identify specific historical examples of evidence relevant to the topic of the prompt. To earn two points the response must use specific historical evidence to support an argument in response to the prompt.
ANALYSIS & REASONING (0–2 pts)	1 pt. Uses historical reasoning (e.g. comparison, causation, CCOT) to frame or structure an argument that addresses the prompt. OR 2 pts. Demonstrates a complex understanding of the historical development that is the focus of the prompt, using evidence to corroborate, qualify, or modify an argument that addresses the question.	To earn the first point, the response must demonstrate the use of historical reasoning to frame or structure an argument, although the reasoning might be uneven or imbalanced. To earn the second point, the response must demonstrate a complex understanding. This can be accomplished in a variety of ways, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explaining nuance of an issue by analyzing multiple variables Explaining both similarity and difference, or explaining both continuity and change, or explaining multiple causes, or explaining both causes and effects Explaining relevant and insightful connections within and across periods Confirming the validity of an argument by corroborating multiple perspectives across themes Qualifying or modifying an argument by considering diverse or alternative views or evidence This understanding must be part of the argument, not merely a phrase or reference.

The Key to Understanding U. S. History and Government James Killoran, Stuart Zimmer, Mark Jarrett, 1996

History Lessons S.G. Grant, 2014-04-04 In this book extended case studies of two veteran teachers and their students are combined with the extant research literature to explore current issues of teaching learning and testing U S history It is among the first to examine these issues together and in interaction While the two teachers share several similarities the teaching practices they construct could not be more different To explore these differences the author asks what their teaching practices look like how their instruction influences their students understandings of history and what role statewide exams play in their classroom decisions History Lessons Teaching Learning and Testing in U S High School Classrooms is a major contribution to the emerging body of empirical research in the field of social studies education chiefly in the subject area of history which asks how U S students make sense of history and how teachers construct their classroom practices Three case study chapters are paired with three essay review chapters intended to help readers analyze the cases by looking at them in the context of the current research literature Two concluding chapters extend the cases and analyses the first looks at how and why the teachers profiled in this book construct their individual teaching practices in terms of three distinct but interacting sets of influences personal organizational and policy factors the second explores the prospects for promoting what the author defines as ambitious teaching and learning Many policymakers assume that standards based reforms support the efforts of ambitious teachers but until we better understand how they and the students in their classes think and act that assumption is hollow at best This book is a must have for faculty and students in the field of social studies education and broadly relevant across the fields of curriculum studies and educational policy Teaching U.S. History Diana Turk,Rachel Mattson,Terrie Epstein,Robert

Cohen,2010-01-12 Teaching U S History is a must read for any aspiring or current teacher who wants to think critically about how to teach U S history and make historical discussions come alive in our schools classrooms United States History

Power, Resistance, and Literacy Julie A. Gorlewski, 2011-07-01 Students in public schools serving poor and working class students are inundated by the effects of high stakes examinations Teachers are demoralized and students suffer substandard curricular and pedagogical experiences These effects are articulated by students and teachers in the high school that provided the setting for the critical ethnography on which this text is based Teachers resent being judged on the basis of students performance on standardized assessments They are deprofessionalized as their roles are oriented toward working class norms Students feel alienated by content that is meaningless and test based pedagogies that are disempowering While these findings are disturbing critical theory provides a foundation for seeking hope By incorporating inquiry and dialogue this theoretical framework opens a space where resistance can be revealed and examined In this case the study exposed glimmers of resistance spaces in the structure of schooling where students and teachers critique the system and suggest ways of subverting the negative effects of the neoliberal reforms through dialogic empowering culturally responsive pedagogies Collective resistance achieved through dialogic pedagogies that build on understandings of resistance and power can cultivate theoretical and material spaces where a cycle of praxis can enhance possibilities for social justice To that end the conclusion is devoted to the implementation of critical dialogic approaches to literacies approaches intended to interrupt the hegemonic influences that perpetuate social reproduction by capitalizing on the potential for solidarity and collective agency among the students and teachers who populate and educate the working classes This book would interest teacher educators teachers and school administrators

Teaching History with Big Ideas S. G. Grant, Jill M. Gradwell, 2010-07-16 In the case studies that make up the bulk of this book middle and high school history teachers describe the decisions and plans and the problems and possibilities they encountered as they ratcheted up their instruction through the use of big ideas Framing a teaching unit around a question such as Why don't we know anything about Africa offers both teacher and students opportunities to explore historical actors ideas and events in ways both rich and engaging Such an approach exemplifies the construct of ambitious teaching whereby teachers demonstrate their ability to marry their deep knowledge of subject matter students and the school context in ways that fundamentally challenge the claim that history is boring

Schools of Opportunity Adam York, Kevin Welner, Linda Molner Kelley, 2023 The National Education Policy Center's Schools of Opportunity project was designed to highlight public high schools that are using research based practices for closing opportunity gaps in student learning The project recognizes schools that are working to address the needs of all students regardless of their zip codes or their school's average test scores By embracing a shift away from the nation's myopic focus on standardized test scores the program's focus is on inputs access to equitable exemplary policies and practices that students experience every school day not outcomes This follows from research findings that schools alone cannot fix the problems created by the stark inequalities in our society Instead schools should be expected to do their part by responding to inequities with research based practices The book features case studies of schools that demonstrate key criteria that other schools can emulate such as an inclusive school climate support for language minority students performance based assessment teacher professionalism a commitment to detracking and supports for students in need Schools of Opportunity builds an argument for shifting the way that excellent public high schools are recognized and built Book Features Provides accounts of school reform jointly told by researcher practitioner teams connecting current research with successful efforts of educators to create outstanding learning environments Brings together the voices of principals and school leaders who share stories of how their work has unfolded in their school district and state contexts Identifies the school leadership and teacher practices that close opportunity gaps for student learning and what it takes to implement them Contributors Dwane Chapelle Janet Eckerson Lourenco Garcia Matt Garcia Kristen Goessling Kimberly Grayson Jill Gurtner Ted Hamann Ann Ishimaru Mark Larson Julie Mead John Murphy Jeannie Oakes Jeff Palladino Derek Pierce Jenifer Rayne Kellie Rolstad Lorrie Shepard Kate Somerville Michelle Valladares Kathryn Wiley

Educational Courage Mara Sapon-Shevin, Nancy Schniedewind, 2012-09-04 Lost amid the debate over educational policies are the stories of the educators parents and students who are most affected by legislation such as No Child Left Behind and Race to the Top In Educational Courage veteran educators and activists Nancy Schniedewind and Mara Sapon Shevin bring together the voices of those who are resisting market driven initiatives such as high stakes testing charter schools mayoral control and merit pay The diverse narrators who write in this volume confront the educational agendas that undermine teachers judgment and knowledge ignore the different backgrounds of students and parents and debase the learning process Yet these educators parents and activists also offer stories of resistance and hope as they fight to uphold the ideals of democratic public education

Essays on Women, Medicine & Health Ann Oakley, 2019-08-06 In this collection of essays Ann Oakley one of the most influential social scientists of the last twenty years brings together the best of her work on the sociology of women s health She focuses on four main themes divisions of labour motherhood technology and methodology and in her own inimitable style combines serious academic discourse from a feminist sociological perspective with a practical understanding of what it is to be women facing the often impersonal world of twentieth century medicine Updating and substantially expanding on her earlier work Telling the Truth About Jerusalem this new collection bridges the medical social divide in an accessible and personable way

History and Social Theory Peter Burke, 2005 What is the use of social theory to historians and of history to social theorists In clear and energetic prose a pre eminent cultural historian here offers a far reaching response to these deceptively simple questions In this classic text now revised and updated in its second edition Peter Burke reviews afresh the relationship between the fields of history and the social sciences and their tentative convergence in recent decades Burke first examines what uses historians have made or might make of the models methods and concepts of the social sciences and then analyzes some of the intellectual conflicts such as the opposition between structure and human agency which are at the heart of the tension between history and social theory Throughout he draws from a broad range of cultures and periods to illustrate how history in turn has been used to create and validate social theories This new edition brings the book up to date with the addition of examples and discussions of new topics such as social capital globalization and post colonialism The second edition of History and Social Theory will continue to stimulate both students and scholars across a range of disciplines with its challenging assessment of the roles of history and social science today

Belly-Rippers, Surgical Innovation and the Ovariectomy Controversy Sally Frampton, 2018-12-30 This open access book looks at the dramatic history of ovariectomy an operation to remove ovarian tumours first practiced in the early nineteenth century Bold and daring surgeons who performed it claimed to be initiating a new era of surgery by opening the abdomen Ovariectomy soon occupied a complex position within medicine and society as an operation which symbolised surgical progress while also remaining at the boundaries of ethical acceptability This book traces the operation s innovation from its roots in eighteenth century pathology through the denouncement of those who performed it as belly rippers to its rapid uptake in the 1880s when ovariectomists were accused of over operating Throughout the century the operation was never a hair s breadth from controversy
