and World Englishes Tunisian Women's Writing in French Sonia Alba, 2018-11-21 Tunisian women's literary production in French published or set between the years 1987 and 2011 from Tunisia's second president Zine El Abidine Ben Ali's rise to power to the eve of the Tunisian Revolution reveals the role of women, their political engagement and their resistance to patriarchal oppression. A great deal of media and scholarly attention has focused on the role of women during the Tunisian Revolution itself, yet few studies have considered women's literary and active engagement prior to the uprising. By contrast, this book focuses specifically on the time period leading to the Revolution. The book is structured around three chapters, each focusing on a different form of writing and on a number of contemporary Tunisian writers who have chosen to express themselves in French. Sonia Alba explores the complex ways in which the authors have attempted to deal with those issues cultural, social and political most relevant to them. This is the first study of Tunisian women's writing in French to compare and contrast key themes in three different genres within a single study and within the conceptual framework of subaltern counterpublics. The work is enhanced by the inclusion of extracts from previously unpublished authors' interviews. Tunisian Women's Writing in French is essential reading for all Francophone and Postcolonial scholars and for scholars and students working in Contemporary Women's Writing.

Reference and Information Services Melissa A. Wong, Laura Saunders, 2024-08-22 Written as a textbook for LIS students taking reference courses, this fully updated and revised seventh edition of Reference and Information Services: An Introduction also serves as a helpful handbook for practitioners to refamiliarize themselves with particular types and formats of sources and to refresh their knowledge on specific service topics. The first section grounds the rest of the textbook with an overview of the foundations of reference and an introduction to the theories, values and standards that guide reference service. The second section provides an overview of reference services and techniques for service provision, establishing a foundation of knowledge on reference service and extending ethical and social justice perspectives. The third part offers an overview of the information life cycle and dissemination of information, followed by an in-depth examination of information sources by type as well as by broad subject areas. Finally, the concluding section guides the reader through the process of developing and maintaining their own vision of reference practice. This textbook is essential reading for all preservice and working librarians, particularly those concerned with ethical and social justice perspectives on reference work.

African American Vernacular English as a Literary Dialect Sophia Huber, 2018-06-13 Knowledge about one's linguistic background, especially when it is different from mainstream varieties, provides a basis for identity and self. Ancestral values can be upheld, celebrated and rooted further in the consciousness of its speakers. In the case of African American Vernacular English (AAVE), the matter is not straightforward and ultimately the social implications its speakers still face today are unresolved. Through detailed analysis of the four building blocks: phonology, morphology, syntax and vocabulary, Sophia Huber tries to trace the development of AAVE as a literary dialect. By unearthing in what ways AAVE in its written form is different from the spoken variety, long established social stigmata and stereotypes which have been burned into the consciousness of the USA through a initially white dominated literary tradition will be exposed Analysing fourteen novels and one short story featuring AAVE it is the first linguistic study of this scope Views from Inside Joy Egbert, Gisela Ernst-Slavik, 2017-12-01 The goal of this text is to help teachers in diverse classrooms understand the importance of students culture languages and schooling experiences to curriculum assessment and student achievement Readers will learn about aspects of specific cultures and languages that are important to their understanding of their students and they will discover that cultures that are often considered similar may not be so and why they aren't Finally the text focuses on how teachers can integrate languages and cultures into classrooms and how to account for students backgrounds and funds of knowledge when devising tasks The text starts with an introduction to language and culture that presents a research based explanation of why these concepts are important for teachers to understand Chapter 1 Then the middle 28 chapters each address one country culture Each chapter starts with a school scenario in the US Part 2 of each chapter includes evidence based demographic and background data on the country including historical events that may have an impact on our students and their families Part 3 includes a look at education schooling and culture including famous people contributions to the world personal characteristics important religious information focal customs and other aspects that are important to cultural insiders Part 4 is about language and literacy traditions and how they relate to the culture a number of words that teachers can learn e.g. yes no thank you please hello how the language is different from and similar to English and what those differences and similarities might mean for English language learners from that culture Part 5 comprises advice resources and ideas for teachers for example if it is an oral culture the teacher might consider working with students on oral storytelling before transitioning to written stories or incorporate both using technology Each chapter also contains recommended readings and resources and short exercises that extend the chapter information The final chapter presents parting notes for teachers and additional suggestions for addressing diversity The Slang Dictionary; Or, The Vulgar Words, Street Phrases, and "fast" Expressions of High and Low Society John Camden Hotten, 1870 The Slang Dictionary John Camden Hotten, 1872 Street Conscious Rap James G.
