Hefner,Muhammad Qasim Zaman,2010-12-16 Since the Taliban seized Kabul in 1996 the public has grappled with the relationship between Islamic education and radical Islam Media reports tend to paint madrasas religious schools dedicated to Islamic learning as medieval institutions opposed to all that is Western and as breeding grounds for terrorists Others have claimed that without reforms Islam and the West are doomed to a clash of civilizations Robert Hefner and Muhammad Qasim Zaman bring together eleven internationally renowned scholars to examine the varieties of modern Muslim education and their implications for national and global politics The contributors provide new insights into Muslim culture and politics in countries as different as Morocco Egypt Pakistan India Indonesia Iran and Saudi Arabia They demonstrate that Islamic education is neither timelessly traditional nor medieval but rather complex evolving and diverse in its institutions and practices They reveal that a struggle for hearts and minds in Muslim lands started long before the Western media discovered madrasas and that Islamic schools remain on its front line Schooling Islam is the most comprehensive work available in any language on madrasas and Islamic education The Islamic Welfare State Christopher Candland,2024-06-30 The Islamic Welfare State explains the relationship between government legitimacy everyday security and lived Islam in Pakistan a major Muslim majority country Its humanitarian spirit makes Islam a compelling community strengthening faith that motivates people to provide essential services to the needy to foster moral sentiments that build social solidarity and to thereby challenge the legitimacy of government with its focus on protecting Islam and national security rather than enhancing the lives of ordinary people The book surveys four kinds of Islamic charities traditional professional partisan and state The focus is on ground realities on the activities of welfare workers and beneficiaries mostly patients and students from low income families The attention to the different political sentiments that different kinds of charity foster allows us to better understand politics and political change in Pakistan and across the Muslim world Redefining Islamic Political Thought 'Ubaidullāh Fahd Falāhī,2006 Universities as Transformative Social Spaces Andrea Kölbel,Joanna Pfaff-Czarnecka,Susan Thieme,2022 Universities are social spaces where diverse personal trajectories connect confront each other and or run parallel to each other This book captures dynamic transformations in the realm of higher education from South Asian perspectives Early Language Learning Policy in the 21st Century Subhan Zein,Maria R. Bastions of the Believers Yoginder Sikand, 2005 The emergence of radical Islamist movements in various parts of the world the rise and fall of the Taliban in Afghanistan the 9 11 attacks widespread vilification spearheaded by Hindutva groups all these and more have made madrasas a much talked about institution Focussing on the madrasas of India Bastions of the Believers seeks to critically interrogate sensationalist and stereotypical images of the madrasas by highlighting their diversity and the complex social roles that they play in the lives of many Muslims Madrasas as a rule represent a conservative form of theology and jurisprudence that is in many ways ill suited to a modern pluralistic society Much of what is taught in madrasas is outdated and unscientific the Deoband madrasa for instance still insists that the sun revolves around the earth and it has special seating arrangements for invisible jinns Yet obscurantism need not necessarily lead to militancy and hostility against others For instance in the decades leading to India's independence the Deobandis representing an extreme form of religious conservatism insisted on Hindu Muslim amity and a joint struggle for a free and united India It is this integrated view of madrasas and a more liberal and open understanding of Islam and indeed of all faiths which Yoginder Sikand seeks to promote for he believes this is one of the principal duties confronting committed believers if we have to learn to live together despite our differences Bastions of the Believers covers a wide range of thought provoking issues from the origins and development of the institution to critiques of madrasa curricula and the alleged links between madrasas and Islamist militancy making this a must read for all those interested in creating and preserving a just social order

Islamic Heritage in South Asian Subcontinent Nazir Ahmad, Iqtidar Husain Siddiqi, 1998 Contributed articles Reading with Allah Nilanjana Gupta, 2012-03-15 Based on extensive fieldwork and archival records this book traces the emergence and flourishing of madrasas and the myriad ways in which they impact upon local Muslim communities especially in West Bengal It also addresses issues of identity secular education and gender in this context while exploring the myths that surround these institutions Amongst other things it interrogates why Muslim communities prefer sending their sons to government schools to receive a secular education while the daughters are sent to madrasas

Islamic Education, Diversity and National Identity Jan-Peter Hartung, Helmut Reifeld, 2006-01-04 This collection of essays considers the position of Madrasa education in a post 9 11 world The authors question whether the Dini Madaris Muslim educational institutions are linked to terrorism and explore both the transparency of funding and patronage and whether there are political implications to this educational system

NEW VISION OF ISLAM Moin Qazi, 2023-04-03 This book is a compilation of the author's articles on various facets of Islam published earlier in various newspapers and journals It gives an insight into various faiths and how they have influenced the lives of their adherents Many of these concepts have been examined in the context of Islam and Muslim culture The purpose of the book is to reinforce the bond of tolerance between people of different faiths ideas and philosophies The author firmly believes this is possible if we all understand and accommodate each other socially culturally and ideologically There are several misconceptions in the minds of people on account of the absence of exposure to the authentic literature of various faiths Most people learn about different faiths and beliefs not by studying their original literature but by inferring from what is being discussed and commented upon in public discourses This book is a sincere attempt to encourage the general public and youth to directly understand the values and ideas that underpin all these faiths Hopefully this strategy or approach could help resolve several misunderstandings and misperceptions This is the most sensible way for humanity to come closer and live in peace and harmony
