Us World Report Best College I:

I'm Going to College—Not You! Jennifer Delahunty, 2010-08-31 Acceptance by a top college is more than a gold star on a high school graduate's forehead today. It has morphed into the ultimate good parenting stamp of approval: the better the bumper sticker, the better the parent. Right? Parents of juniors and seniors in high school fret over SAT scores and essays, obsessed with getting their kids into the right college while their children push for independence. I'm Going to College Not You is a resource for parents written by parents who've been in their shoes. Kenyon College dean Jennifer Delahunty shares her unique perspective and her daughter's on one of the toughest periods of parenting and has assembled a top-notch group of writers that includes best-selling authors, college professors, and admissions directors and journalists. Their experiences with the difficult balancing act between control freak and resource answer questions like: how can a parent be less of a helicopter hovering and more of a booster rocket uplifting? What do you do when your child wants to put off college to become a rock star and how will you keep from wanting to kill each other? Contributors include Jane Hamilton, David Latt, Neal Pollack, Joe Queenan, Anne Roark, Debra Shaver, Anna Quindlen, Ellen Waterston. The Complete Book of Colleges, 2012

Edition Princeton Review (Firm), 2011-08-15 Presents a comprehensive guide to 1,571 colleges and universities and includes information on academic programs, admissions requirements, tuition costs, housing, financial aid, campus life, organizations, athletic programs, and student services. English for a Better World IV' 2007 Ed. , Get Out of College and Get on with Your Neal Prochnow, 2005-05 Performance Richard L. Alfred, 2012 Organizational Performance Core Concepts Conceptions of Performance Thinking Differently Breaking Ranks Colin Diver, 2022-04-12 Some colleges will do anything to improve their national ranking. That can be bad for their students and for higher education. Since U.S. News World Report first published a college ranking in 1983, the rankings industry has become a self-appointed judge declaring winners and losers among America's colleges and universities. In this revealing account, Colin Diver shows how popular rankings have induced college applicants to focus solely on pedigree and prestige while tempting educators to sacrifice academic integrity for short-term competitive advantage. By forcing colleges into standardized best college hierarchies, he argues, rankings have threatened the institutional diversity, intellectual rigor, and social mobility that is the genius of American higher education. As a former university administrator who refused to play the game, Diver leads his readers on an engaging journey through the mysteries of college rankings, admissions, financial aid, spending policies, and academic practices. He explains how most dominant college rankings perpetuate views of higher education as a purely consumer good, susceptible to unidimensional measures of brand value and prestige. Many rankings, he asserts, also undermine the moral authority of higher education by encouraging various forms of distorted behavior, misrepresentation, and outright cheating by ranked institutions. The recent Varsity Blues admissions scandal, for example, happened in part because affluent parents wanted to get their children into elite schools by any means necessary. Explaining what is most useful and important in evaluating colleges, Diver offers both college applicants and educators a guide to pursuing their highest academic goals freed from the siren song of the best college illusion Ultimately he reveals how to break ranks with a rankings industry that misleads its consumers undermines academic values and perpetuates social inequality Annual Report Ontario.
