Broadcasting the End of Apartheid Martha Evans, 2014-07-15 South Africa came late to television when it finally arrived in the late 1970s the rest of the world had already begun to boycott the country because of apartheid While the ruling National Party feared the integrative effects of television they did not foresee how exclusion from globally unifying broadcasts would gradually erode their power South Africa was barred from participating in some of television's greatest global attractions including sporting events such as the Olympics and contests such as Miss World With the release of Nelson Mandela from prison came a proliferation of large scale live broadcasts as the country was permitted to return to international competition and its re admittance was played out on television screens across the world These events were pivotal in shaping and consolidating the country s emerging post apartheid national identity Broadcasting the End of Apartheid assesses the socio political effects of live broadcasting on South Africa s transition to democracy Martha Evans argues that just as print media had a powerful influence on the development of Afrikaner nationalism so the liveness of television helped to consolidate the post apartheid South African national identity Telling Times: Writing and Living, 1954-2008 Nadine Gordimer, 2010-06-28 A comprehensive collection of the author s nonfiction works ranges from reports on the 1976 Soweto uprising and observations of Zimbabwe at the dawn of independence to portraits of such figures as Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu The Cambridge Companion to the African Novel Abiola Irele, 2009-07-23 An overview of the key novels and novelists of the continent covering multiple cultures and languages The Voyage of Saint Brendan William Raymond Johnston Barron, Glyn Sheridan Burgess, 2005 The legend of St Brendan is one of the greatest legends of the Middle Ages This volume presents numerous versions of Brendan s journey in translation with supporting notes and commentary Worlds in One Country Denis Hirson, 2011 Worlds in one country is a compact inclusive history of writing in South Africa from the nineteenth century to 1994 that crosses boundaries of language and colour including prose poetry and theatre Bending the Bow Frank M Chipasula, 2009-08-05 From the ancient Egyptian inventors of the love lyric to contemporary poets Bending the Bow An Anthology of African Love Poetry gathers together both written and sung love poetry from Africa This anthology is a work of literary archaeology that lays bare a genre of African poetry that has been overshadowed by political poetry Frank Chipasula has assembled a historically and geographically comprehensive wealth of African love poetry that spans more than three thousand years By collecting a continent s celebrations and explorations of the nature of love he expands African literature into the sublime territory of the heart Bending the Bow traces the development of African love poetry from antiquity to modernity while establishing a cross millennial dialogue The anonymously written love poems from Pharaonic Egypt that open the anthology both predate Biblical love poetry and reveal the longevity of written love poetry in Africa The middle section is devoted to sung love poetry from all regions of the continent These great works serve as the foundation for modern poetry and testify to love poetry s omnipresence in Africa The final section showcasing forty eight modern African poets celebrates the genre s continuing vitality Among those represented are Muyaka bin Hajji and Shaaban Robert two major Swahili poets Gabriel Okara the innovative though underrated Nigerian poet L opold S dar Senghor the first president of Senegal and a founder of the Negritude Movement in francophone African literature Rashidah Ismaili from Benin Flavien Ranaivo from Madagascar and Gabeba Baderoon from South Africa Ranging from the subtly suggestive to the openly erotic this collection highlights love s endurance in a world too often riven by contention Bending the Bow bears testimony to poetry s role as conciliator while opening up a new area of study for scholars and students The Magic Tree Guy Butler, Jeff Opland, 1989 Postcolonial Aeromobilities Bart Paul
