The Self-made Billionaire Effect Deluxe John Sviokla, Mitch Cohen, 2014-12-30 The Deluxe Edition of The Self made Billionaire Effect includes seven videos of authors John Sviokla and Mitch Cohen expanding on the book s themes and their findings along with behind the scenes insights into what makes self made billionaires unique A study of self made billionaires reveals the key distinction between producers and performers There are about 800 self made billionaires in the world today What enables this elite group to create truly massive value and what can the rest of us learn from them John Sviokla and Mitch Cohen set out to answer this question with the first systematic study of 120 self made billionaires including extensive interviews with icons like Steve Case Mark Cuban and T Boone Pickens Jr The authors conclude that self made billionaires aren t necessarily smarter harder working or luckier than their peers The key difference is what they call the producer mindset in contrast to the far more common performer mindset Performers strive to excel in well defined areas and they are essential to any company But producers are even more valuable because they redefine what s possible rather than simply meeting pre existing goals and standards Producers think up entirely new products services strategies and business models with dramatic results This book offers fresh stories and insights into producers habits of mind It also provides corporate leaders with a new approach to selecting and managing breakthrough talent and advice about innovation and value creation for aspiring leaders or entrepreneurs

Billionaires on Planet Earth: 1200 of the Most Influential Productive Capital Inspired Achievers Joseph J. Randazzo , 2019-11-23 Billionaires are a unique fraternity and breed of humans that have excelled in the workforce more productive and creative than the successful entrepreneur where timing in business supersedes talent and determination persistence and sheer guts have shadowed and outreached college degrees Currently there are over 2300 billionaires on planet Earth and growing each and every year These individuals think and act differently thus resulting in extreme capital collections along with owning about 30% of the sports teams and massive collections of art sacred writings and toys The category of women Billionaires seems to be growing fast in the USA China and Hong Kong where most of the world s billionaires operate in the workforce Although there may only be a handful of Super Billionaires who amassed over 50 Billion Dollars the playing field is open in the future for many newcomers What makes them different What can we learn Who's next Study the habits of Billionaires On Planet Earth from 120 of the most successful They are thrifty and consider basic cost They are continuing a constant quest for learning the latest information They know the value of exercise and smart food to secure wellness They understand the value of rest meditation and prayer They start their day early and have a plan ready for action They see things differently and act on them They don't understand No as an answer They are always possibility thinkers and then doers of action They have learned the more you give the more you get in the realm of tithing philanthropy and just old fashion basic giving back

Consumer Product Innovation and Sustainable Design Robin Roy, 2015-10-23 Consumer Product Innovation and Sustainable Design follows the innovation and evolution of consumer products from vacuum cleaners to mobile phones from their original inventions to the present day It discusses how environmental concerns and legislation have influenced their design and the profound effects these products have had on society and culture This book also uses the lessons from the successes and failures of examples of these consumer products to draw out practical guidelines for designers engineers marketers and managers on how to become more effective at product development innovation and designing for environmental sustainability Routledge Handbook of Consumer Protection and Behaviour in Energy Markets Tina Soliman Hunter, Marcin Kraśniewski, Jurgita Malinauskaite, Marzena Czarnecka, 2024-09-27 The Routledge Handbook of Consumer Protection and Behaviour in Energy Markets provides a comprehensive study of consumer protection and consumer behaviour in selected jurisdictions worldwide Each chapter is written by experts and provides a contemporary overview of national consumer protection and policy developments in the energy sector Today energy has become an essential factor in ensuring the socio economic development of any country and improving the quality of life of society and is now an essential element of life for everyone The energy market has become a competitive market based on the assumption that generation and sale of energy is not a natural monopoly and that market mechanisms in particular competition between energy companies are the best way to reduce prices and improve customer service The purchase of energy is inextricably linked with its distribution from the producer to the purchaser The book shows that well functioning energy markets need informed and well protected consumers who can benefit from competition and transparent offers They are free to choose the most competitive providers and know their rights with access to effective means of redress Given that the energy market has a specific technical nature the book analyses the energy market within the scope of free market principles with a focus on the protection of the weaker party to the contract the consumer In addition consumers can also play an active part of the clean energy transition The Baby Boomers First-Hand, First-Year Guide to Retirement Duane Lance Filer, 2014-07-13 Ever wonder what really happens that first year after you retire I'm talking about the day to day emotions feelings projects questions anxieties the ups and downs of this very important next step in one's life after some 25 30 35 40 years of formal work Well my The Baby Boomers First Hand First Year Guide to Retirement 365 Days of Bliss or Diss Not could provide some insight for those recently retired or contemplating retirement This 365 day from January 17 2013 to January 17 2014 daily journal allows the reader to follow along as I experience the chores the life the new budgeting the wife the questions the emotions some answers and hopefully some solutions First Hand is an easy to read fast page turner a humorous collection of thoughts and stuff it does not hit you over the head with heavy retirement questions regarding pensions or 401 k requirements or statistics such as inflation projections investment facts tax shelters financial formulas etc My book is simply a personal essay of my first 365 days of retirement featuring real names and real people Included are personal pictures and anecdotes of my 2013 journey that sheds light on the everyday minutia of retired life I self published my first book SQUARE SQUIRE and I have a young adult short story collection Word Food for Doods ready for publishing I am presently working on a novella about a jive hipster dude cat called Diddley Squatt

The Self-made Billionaire Effect John Sviokla, Mitch Cohen, 2014-12-30 Imagine what Atari might have achieved if Steve Jobs had stayed there to develop the first massmarket personal computer Or what Steve Case might have done for PepsiCo if he hadn't left for a gaming start up that eventually became AOL What if Salomon Brothers had kept Michael Bloomberg or Bear Stearns had exploited the inventive ideas of Stephen Ross Scores of top tier entrepreneurs worked for established corporations before they struck out on their own and became self made billionaires People like Mark Cuban John Paul DeJoria Sara Blakely and T Boone Pickens all built businesses in some cases multiple businesses that are among today's most iconic brands This fact raises two profound questions Why couldn't their former employers hang on to these extraordinarily talented people And why are most big companies unable to create as much new value as the world's roughly 800 self made billionaires John Sviokla and Mitch Cohen decided to look more closely at self made billionaires because creating 1 billion or more in value is an incredible feat Drawing on extensive research and interviews the authors concluded that many of the myths perpetuated about billionaires are simply not true These billionaires aren't necessarily smarter harder working or luckier than their peers They aren't all prodigies crossing the billionaire finish line in their twenties Nor most of the time do they create something brand new More than 80 percent of the billionaires in the research sample earned their billions in highly competitive industries The key difference is what the authors call the Producer mind set in contrast with the far more pervasive Performer mind set Performers strive to excel in well defined areas and are important But Producers are critical to any company looking to create massive value because they redefine what's possible rather than simply meeting preexisting goals and standards Combining sound judgment with imaginative vision Producers think up entirely new products services strategies and business models Big companies tend to reward Performers and discourage the unconventional ways of Producers But it's the latter who integrate multiple ideas perspectives and actions and who trust their insights enough to make game changing bets This book breaks down the five critical habits of mind of massive value creators so you can learn how to identify encourage and retain such individuals and maybe even become one yourself The Self made Billionaire Effect will forever change the way you think about talent and business value In honor of The Self Made Billionaire Effect purchases PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is making a significant contribution to DonorsChoose.org an online charity that connects public school teachers in need of classroom materials and experiences with individual donors who want to help PwC's gift will support financial literacy projects around the country
