combines on the one hand a sensitivity to the context and structural elements of modern diaspora and on the other an analysis of the individual psychological processes inherent to the experience of displacement and return such as nostalgia memory and belonging In the narratives of return analyzed in this volume space and identity are never static or easily definable rather they are in process and subject to change as they are always entangled in the historical and inter subjective relations ensuing from displacement and mobility This book will interest students and scholars who wish to further explore the role of American literature within current debates on globalization migration and ethnicity
