Henfield,2016-12-01 The Ivory Tower is and can often be a lonely place for faculty of color Social injustices run deep and are entrenched within academia Faculty of color FOC more specifically Black and Hispanic often lament about the Black Brown tax that frequently takes its toll both personally and professionally and pushes them out of the academy Similar to trends in P 12 settings educators of color in postsecondary contexts represent less than 10% of the profession In essence we are an anomaly and the implications of this are clear and dire as evidenced by persistent achievement access and expectation gaps within the academy Scholars of color SOC at all stages but particularly during doctoral training frequently struggle to not just survive but to thrive in the academy Too many fail to earn their doctoral degree with many wearing the All But Dissertation ABD as a badge of honor Although ABD is not a degree many scholars of color receive inadequate mentoring often substandard in comparison to the hand holding White students receive which leaves far too many doctoral students of color lost bewildered angry indignant and defeated This righteous indignation is justified but excused away using the myth of meritocracy and colorblind notions of success followed by a myriad of problems steeped with victim blaming as noted in the classic Presumed Incompetent The Intersections of Race and Class for Women in Academia Guti rrez y Muhs Niemann Gonz lez Harris 2012 The aforementioned work was not the first treatise on higher education and how the non status quo along with those grappling with oppression and double standards experience the profession called higher education Moreover The Chilly Climate Sandler Silverberg Hall 1996 report which focused on females was also telling but not enough was addressed and disclosed about females of color until version two But these issues do not stop with females of color but instead extend to all faculty of color R A C E
