Imagining Otherwise Debra Gettelman, 2024-08-13 How Victorian authors engaged the imaginations of their readers and elevated the novel to new heights As novel publication exploded in nineteenth century Britain writers such as Jane Austen Charles Dickens and George Eliot learned from experience sometimes grudgingly that readers tend to make their own imaginative contributions to fictional worlds Imagining Otherwise shows how Victorian writers acknowledged grappled with and ultimately enlisted the prerogative of readers to conjure alternatives and add depth to the words on the page Debra Gettelman provides incisive new readings of novels such as Sense and Sensibility Little Dorrit and Middlemarch exploring how novelists known for prescriptive and didactic narrative voices were at the same time exploring the aesthetic potential for the reader's independent imagination to lend nuance and authenticity to fiction Modernist authors of the twentieth century have long been considered pioneers in cultivating the reader's capacity to imagine what is not said as part of the art of fiction Gettelman uncovers the roots of this tradition of novel reading a century earlier and challenges literary criticism that dismisses this spontaneous readerly impulse as being unworthy of serious examination As readers demand novels with relatable characters and fan fiction grows in popularity the reader's imagination has become a determining element of today's literary environment Imagining Otherwise takes a deeper look at this history offering a critical perspective on how we came to view fiction as a site of imaginative appropriation House Documents, Otherwise Publ. as Executive Documents

United States. Congress. House, 1873 Writing Otherwise Jeannette Gaudet, 1999 Essentially a comparative and contrastive analysis Writing Otherwise examines the prose of five French women authors Liliane Atlan Marguerite Duras Liliane Giraudon Marie Redonnet and Monique Wittig Through close readings of texts published after 1985 this book explores the broad concerns and preoccupations infusing the ontological enterprise that is écriture While maintaining a sensitivity to the diversity of styles and themes as well as the unique qualities of the poetic voice evident in the five texts under consideration this study seeks to highlight in very general terms what is common to them The intertextual ground that informs the works the construction of subjectivity and the ambivalence and tension inherent to the practice writing constitute significant and important areas of convergence These features form the ground of each chapter while specific areas of divergence complete the discussion of individual aesthetics Inspired by feminist literary theory Writing Otherwise is also concerned with how these five women writers negotiate their relationship to writing Book News Monthly, 1906

Book Review Digest, 1927 Seeing Politics Otherwise Patricia I. Vieira, 2011-01-01 When confronting twentieth century political oppression and violence writers and artists in Portugal and South America have often emphasized the complex relationship between freedom and tyranny In Seeing Politics Otherwise Patricia Vieira uses an interdisciplinary approach to explore the interrelation of politics and representations of vision and blindness in Latin American and Iberian literature film and art Vieira's discussion focuses on three literary works Graciliano Ramos's Memoirs of Prison Ariel

Dorfman's Death and the Maiden and Jos Saramago's Blindness with supplemental analyses of sculpture and film by Ana Maria Pacheco Bruno Barreto and Marco Bechis These artists use metaphors of blindness to denounce the totalizing gaze of dictatorial regimes Rather than equating blindness with deprivation Vieira argues that shadows blindfolds and blindness are necessary elements for re imagining the political world and re acquiring a political voice Seeing Politics Otherwise offers a compelling analysis of vision and its forcible deprivation in the context of art and political protest Polish, Hybrid, and Otherwise George Z. Gasyna, 2011-05-05 Polish Hybrid and Otherwise examines the triple compact made by displaced authors with language their host country and the homeland left behind It considers the entwined phenomena of expatriation and homelessness and the artistic responses to these conditions including reconstructions of identity and the creation of idealized new homelands Conrad and Gombrowicz writers who lived with the condition of exile were in the vanguard of what today has become a thriving intellectual community of transnationals whose calling card is precisely their hybridity and fluency in multiple cultural traditions Conrad and Gombrowicz's Polish childhoods emerge as cultural touchstones against which they formulated their writing philosophies Gasyna claims that in both cases negotiating exile involved processes of working through a traumatic past through the construction of narrative personae that served as strategic doubles Both authors engaged in extensive manipulation of their public image Above all Conrad and Gombrowicz's narratives are united by a desire for a linguistic refuge a proposed home in language and a set of techniques deployed in the representation of their predicament as subjects caught in between The Dialogic Novels of Malcolm Bradbury and David Lodge Robert A. Morace, 1989 Discusses the overlooked works of Bradbury and Lodge in terms of their critical reception Bakhtin's theory of the dialogical novel and their relation to British literature and contemporary literature in general Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or How to write a Book Dr. Rohit Shankar Mane, 2022-05-14 How to write a book In the novel which explains my own experiences strategies for writing In this novel I have correlatively explained how to become a writer Nowadays many children adults and mature people are writing about their own life and travel experiences and many more But still many people won't write their own experiences because of the absence of self confidence self motivation writing skills time management development of main and side characters in the novel or bringing up behind and future story of the characters etc Therefore I am here with different strategies and my own experiences to put forward something meaningful on the table for writers or those who want to become a writer All chapters are written as per my own experience and by taking references from different writers All these experiences will help somebody to become a skilled writer and I am sure that after reading this book somebody will become a writer Soviet Fiction since Stalin Rosalind J. Marsh, 2022-03-14 First published in 1986 Soviet Fiction since Stalin presents a comprehensive overview of the literature of the post Stalin period in the Soviet Union The rapid advances in science and technology in these years are reflected in the themes of many of the major novelists Pasternak Solzhenitsyn Sinyavsky Daniel and Grossman and scientific subjects frequently offer a vehicle for the exploration of the wider socio political moral and philosophical ideas As the period advances however literature becomes the first medium in which to express mistrust of scientific advance and hence indirectly of Soviet policy as a whole Rosalind J Marsh uses a broad definition of science which enables her to cover topics ranging from de Stalinization nationalism and anti Semitism in science to Lysenko and scientific charlatanism the Soviet rejection of relativity theory and quantum mechanics the atom bomb and also such general problems as secrecy careerism and bureaucracy The bulk of the book concentrates on the Khrushchev years but there is also plentiful discussion of more recent writing such as that of Zinoviev and Voinovich This book will be of interest to students and researchers of Soviet literature Russian Literature and literature in general Book News ,1905
