Education Success Story Peeter Mehisto, Maie Kitsing, 2022-07-19 This book explores how Estonia despite high levels of poverty has transformed its education system to become Europe s top performer on PISA Programme for International Student Assessment The engaging narrative uncovers reforms mistakes and lessons learnt that have been harnessed to create a high performing high equity education system which includes social and education policies fostering equity inclusion learner autonomy as well as schoolteacher and principal professionalism autonomy and responsibility It unearths how easy access to a wide range of data such as perceptions of well being autonomy and connectedness in addition to examination results builds internal and external accountability and contributes to collective stakeholder efficacy Grounded in research from Estonia and beyond this is an ideal read for educators administrators academics university students change agents and parents interested in school system improvement As equity equality and inclusion are core drivers of the Estonian education system this book would also be of interest to those working in social justice inclusion and diversity      Lessons from Europe?

R. Daniel Kelemen, 2014-02-05 What can American policymakers learn from the experiences of European democracies While we can look to our own history and to the ideas emanating from our own public sphere by looking abroad we can also learn lessons from European policies from both those that have proven successful and those that have failed The contributors in this volume examine the ways our European allies have dealt with issues such as rising healthcare and pension costs large scale immigration childcare and work life balance and climate change and ask whether such policies might prove effective in the U S context Brief and engaging R Daniel Kelemen s Lessons from Europe What Americans Can Learn from European Public Policies is an ideal supplement for comparative public policy courses and would add a provocative comparative component to U S public policy courses      Lessons from Forest Decentralization Carol Colfer Pierce J, Ganga Dahal

Ram, Doris Capistrano, 2012 The decentralization of control over the vast forests of the world is moving at a rapid pace with both positive and negative ramifications for people and forests themselves The fresh research from a host of Asia Pacific countries described in this book presents rich and varied experience with decentralization and provides important lessons for other regions Beginning with historical and geographical overview chapters the book proceeds to more in depth coverage of the region s countries Research findings stress rights roles and responsibilities on the one hand and organization capacity building infrastructure and legal aspects on the other With these overarching themes in mind the authors take on many controversial topics and address practical challenges related to financing and reinvestment in sustainable forest management under decentralized governance Particular efforts have been made to examine decentralization scales from the local to the national and to address gender issues The result is a unique examination of decentralization issues in forestry with clear lessons for policy social equity forest management research development and conservation in forested areas across the globe from the tropics to temperate regions Published with CIFOR      Lessons from the Poor Alvaro Vargas Llosa, James D. Gwartney, 2008-05-01 An important contribution to the literature of economic development this book presents case studies of productive entrepreneurship in contemporary Africa and Latin America It looks at the growth of Kenya's chain stores and one person kiosks the rise of barter clubs in Argentina and Nigeria's clothing design industry to illustrate economists' insights about entrepreneurship and the role that government regulations often play in impeding economic development Half the people in the world live on two dollars or less per day and roughly 600 million live on no more than one dollar per day With thousands of international relief organizations strategic government programs and billions of dollars in foreign aid why do so many underdeveloped countries remain unable to grow their economies beyond mere survival It is this issue that internationally acclaimed political analyst Alvaro Vargas Llosa and a select group of economists examine in a series of case studies from around the world These studies reveal that entrepreneurial energy can be a persistent catalyst for change But unfortunately in societies dominated by political corruption and unnecessary regulation men and women seeking to innovate must hurdle a series of challenges Wealth transfer favoritism excessive taxation and lack of institutional security all conspire against progress Our contributors examine real world examples of entrepreneurship and argue that instead of redistributing existing wealth developing countries should start working to create it
