The Short Story Valerie Shaw, 2014-07-21 Throughout this text Valerie Shaw addresses two key questions What are the special satisfactions afforded by reading short stories and How are these satisfactions derived from each story's literary techniques and narrative strategies She then attempts to answer these questions by drawing on stories from different periods and countries by authors who were also great novelists like Henry James Flaubert Kafka and D H Lawrence by authors who specifically dedicated themselves to the art of the short story like Kipling Chekhov and Katherine Mansfield by contemporary practitioners like Angela Carter and Jorge Luis Borges and by unfairly neglected writers like Sarah Orne Jewett and Joel Chandler Harris

Threatened Masculinity from British Fiction to Cold War German Cinema Joseph Willis, 2019-05-30 The impact of the Cold War on German male identities can be seen in the nation's cinematic search for a masculine paradigm that rejected the fate centered value system of its National Socialist past while also recognizing that German males once again had become victims of fate and fatalism but now within the value system of the Soviet and American hegemonies that determined the fate of Cold War Germany and Central Europe This monograph is the first to demonstrate that this Cold War cinematic search sought out a meaningful masculine paradigm through film adaptations of late Victorian and Edwardian male writers who likewise sought a means of self determination within a hegemonic structure that often left few opportunities for personal agency In contrast to the scholarly practice of exploring categories of modern masculinity such as Victorian imperialist manliness or German Cold War male identity as distinct from each other this monograph offers an important comparative corrective that brings forward an extremely influential century long trajectory of threatened masculinity For German Cold War masculinity lessons were to be learned from history namely from late Victorian and Edwardian models of manliness Cold War Germans like the Victorians before them had to confront the unknowns of a new world without fear or hesitation In a Cold War mentality where nuclear technology and geographic distance had trumped face to face confrontation between East and West Cold War German masculinity sought alternatives to the insanity of mutual nuclear destruction by choosing not just to confront threats but to resolve threats directly through personal agency and self determination All of Us Raymond Carver, 2015-05-25 A rich collection of poems from not only one of the great short story writers of our time The Philadelphia Inquirer but one of America's most large hearted and affecting poets Like Raymond Carver's stories the more than 300 poems in All of Us are marked by a keen attention to the physical world an uncanny ability to compress vast feeling into discreet moments a voice of conversational intimacy and an unstinting sympathy This complete edition brings together all the poems of Carver's five previous books from Fires to the posthumously published No Heroics Please It also contains bibliographical and textual notes on individual poems a chronology of Carver's life and work and a moving introduction by Carver's widow the poet Tess Gallagher

Books Added Chicago Public Library, 1916 Sunset, 1918 The American School Board Journal William George Bruce, William Conrad Bruce, 1895 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1881 The War in North Africa, 1940-1943 Colin F. Baxter, 1996-03-30 Few of the major campaigns of World War II aroused as much controversy as the War in North Africa 1940-1943 Figures such as Rommel Montgomery and Eisenhower would become world famous because of the fighting in North Africa This book opens with seven historiographical essays that evaluate and critically assess the major contributions to the literature on the War in North Africa It then includes an alphabetically arranged bibliography of the 504 entries cited in the essays The material is easily accessible with cross references between the text and the bibliography and a full index The volume includes chapters on the Desert War 1940-42 the Axis Powers in North Africa Montgomery Alam Halfa and El Alamein TORCH the Landings in French North Africa and the Tunisian Campaign Full attention is given to questions and issues historians have raised on such controversies as the Auchinleck Montgomery dispute the debate over Operation TORCH and the Darlan affair Emphasis is on English language works but the most significant Italian German and French works are cited and assessed The book has been written for use in public college university and institutional libraries and to serve general readers and military historians Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review, 1878 A Reading of Propertius' Elegies Lee Fratantuono, 2025-01-30 Among the surviving poets of the Age of Augustus the elegist Propertius is an enigma Now brooding now buoyant Propertius couplets offer mesmerizing commentary on the history of Rome and the renaissance of the republic in the wake of the Augustan victory at Actium The elusive figure who dominates the poems is Cynthia a literate musically inclined chestnut haired Muse who calls to mind aspects of both the huntress goddess Diana and the battle goddess Minerva Through the course of his Cynthia cycle Propertius composes a breathtaking array of verse meditations on love and death the nature of passion and obsession and the quest to remain forever young In A Reading of Propertius Elegies Lee Fratantuono reveals Propertius work to be nothing less than an elegiac Aeneid a spellbinding intertextual edifice whose rooms both charm and terrify Dazzling and decadent gorgeous and ghostly sophisticated and seductive Propertius Cynthia ultimately presents us with the image of wolfish Roma herself a city that is not only an anagram of Amor but also the mistress of the world In a Roman empire that has beheld the drama of Cleopatra and Antony the rites of Isis and the madness inspired by Bacchus and the Great Mother Propertius dispenses elegiac medicine as the horror of civil war and the aftermath of intoxicated excess give way to an Augustan remedy
