Cultivating Generosity: Giving What's Right, Not What's Left Rem Stokes, 2013-10-23 At last An insightful book about cultivating generosity from a generous lay leader and donor and not from a professional fundraiser or clergy leader Rem Stokes alone knows more about the psychology of donors and has demonstrated that insight over more years than a whole busload of ministers and consultants put together If you want to understand how to change the culture of your congregation or group in the direction of abundance not scarcity this is your guidebook Rev John Buehrens former president of the Unitarian Universalist Association Money pervades all aspects of our lives but we dare not discuss it for fear of touching the proverbial third rail The discomfort we experience may be that it reveals more than we want it to All individuals fear rejection and want acceptance And money becomes the agent of compensation the opium of the masses But it is a false hope Money is extrinsic and can only buy external things Money simply cannot buy the things most worth having Wherever there is pain or embarrassment there is essential learning to be done I believe churches should address the stranglehold that money has on our attitudes Churches cannot be truly relevant to their members real life issues without addressing the money dimension that underlies their attitudes and behaviors You cannot compartmentalize a person into secular and spiritual categories without damaging his wholeness This book addresses that issue head on Churches need programs that let money permeate the environment in a wholesome and constructive way Those programs should help overcome the reluctance to discuss money and cultivate a culture of generosity This book provides a set of exercises and a rationale for churches to achieve these goals moving members from self interest to self esteem What's Left Behind Gail Bowen, 2016-03-01 From the Queen of Canadian crime fiction Winnipeg Free Press comes the 16th instalment of the much loved Joanne Kilbourn series The latest novel in the Joanne Kilbourn Shreve series opens in the month of May a time of beginnings when all things seem possible Joanne's husband Zack recently elected mayor of Regina is optimistic that he can garner the public support necessary to make Regina a city that works not just for the few but for the many Their oldest son Peter is marrying Maisie Crawford a woman as clever and forthright as she is lovely Their lakeside wedding is a dream come true but when a former lover of a member of the bridal party shows up the dream becomes a nightmare Before the bride's bouquet has wilted there's an act of sickening cruelty soon afterwards there's a murder Devastated Joanne and Zack search for answers As it becomes increasingly unclear whether political agendas shattered romance or a secret buried deep in the past have motivated the crimes the loyalties of the Shreve family are tested A gripping mystery with a social conscience this is a novel of high stakes and innocence lost The Railway Conductor ,1908 Navy and Army Illustrated ,1901 The gospel pulpit.
