Exercise 105
Read, copy, and transcribe
The first of the great principles of shorthand
is to write the words
as they are pronounced
and not as they are spelled. This is the key to the system.
The second principle
in a simple and direct
manner, without unnecessary flourishes
or decorations. The third principle is to write the words in a
compact and concise
manner, so that they can be written quickly
and easily. The fourth principle is to write
the words in a clear
and legible manner,
so that they can be
read without difficulty.
The fifth principle is
to write the words in
a consistent manner,
read without difficulty.
The sixth principle is
a uniform manner,
read without difficulty.
The seventh principle
eighth principle is to
and easily. The ninth
The tenth principle is
a consistent manner,
