Towns and Cities: Function in Form Mr Julian Hart, 2015-10-28 The book makes a step change from any other comparable studies by understanding our towns and cities in terms of function in form This helps us to appreciate why every town is a recognisable town wherever it is Different urban environments in different parts of the world past and present can come to be seen according to their similarities instead of their differences Furthermore by appreciating how the economic influences of everyday life structure our towns and cities we can in turn begin to understand better how the structure of towns and cities affect the quality of life of inhabitants and the cohesiveness of communities In covering all scales from inside the home to macrostructure of the city the book encapsulates urban or town planning and does not seek to distinguish between the various design disciplines

Mobile Pastoralist Households Jean-Luc Houle, 2024-10-01 Mobile pastoralist activities occur at different scales across the landscape including local regional and supra regional scales Most archaeological studies of mobile pastoralist social organization have focused on the latter two scales via the extant monumental and herding landscapes Household levels of analysis figure much less in these studies This volume brings together the work of archaeologists currently engaged in mobile pastoralist household research in different regions of the world to highlight the importance of household studies and the utility of both archaeological and ethnoarchaeological approaches in understanding mobile pastoralist household formation continuity and adaptation to environmental social economic and political change

How to Lay Out a Garden Edward Kemp, 1864 Renewing the House Alice Victoria Maud Samson, 2010 Over two thousand archaeological features cut directly into the limestone bedrock and an artefact assemblage of pottery shell and stone led to reconstructions of fifty domestic structures thirty of which are houses and interpretations of the spatial organization and chronology of the site between ca AD 800 and 1504 Countdown to the
