

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a red off-the-shoulder gown with a large purple flower in her hair, is seen from behind. She is looking towards a candelabra with five lit candles on a mantelpiece. In the background, there is a fireplace with a painting of a landscape. The scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the candles.

Frances Burney Sophie von La Roche and Marie Elisabeth de La Fite in conversation about St phanie de Genlis she excavates a complex community of European and British women authors In chapters that incorporate history network theory and feminist literary history she examines the century and a half literary lineage connecting Madame de Maintenon to Mary Wollstonecraft including Charlotte Lennox and Fran oise de Graffigny and their radical responses to sexual violence Neither simply a reaction to nor collusion with patriarchal and national literary forms but rather both women s writing offered an invitation to group membership through a literary project of self transformation In so doing argues Cheek women s writing was the first modern literary category to capitalize transnationally on the virtue of identity anticipating the global literary marketplace s segmentation of affinity based reading publics and continuing to define women s writing to this day The
