Exercise 105
Read, copy, and transcribe
The first part of the exercise shows a series of shorthand symbols written on lined paper. The symbols are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with each symbol occupying a specific space defined by the lines. The symbols are written in a cursive, flowing style, characteristic of Pitman shorthand. The second part of the exercise shows the same symbols written in a more formal, upright style, also on lined paper. This part is used for copying and transcribing the symbols.
