Design Commons Gerhard Bruyns,Stavros Kousoulas,2022-05-17 This book directly links the notion of the commons with different design praxes and explores their social cultural and ecological ramifications It draws out material conditions in four areas of design interest social design commons and culture ecology and transdisciplinary design As a collection of positions the diversity of arguments advances the understanding of the commons as both concepts and modes of thinking and their material translation when contextualised in the domain of design questions In other words it moves abstract social science concepts towards concrete design debates This text appeals to students researchers and practitioners working on design in architecture architecture theory urbanism and ecology Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit ,2022 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bi directional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses

Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light

Monument Culture Laura A. Macaluso, 2019-05-30 Monument Culture International Perspectives on the Future of Monuments in a Changing World brings together a collection of essays from scholars and cultural critics working on the meanings of monuments and memorials in the second decade of the twenty first century a time of great social and political change The book presents a broad view of the challenges facing individuals and society in making sense of public monuments with contested meanings From the United States to Europe to Africa to Australia and New Zealand to South America and beyond the contributors tackle the ways in which different places approach monuments in a landscape where institutions and ideas are under direct challenge from political and social unrest It also discusses sharply changed attitudes about the representation of history and memory in the public sphere The goal is to acknowledge shared experiences through a wider perspective to contribute to the work of the world wide heritage community and to document the history and shifting cultural attitudes towards monument culture across the world encouraging a more informed approach to monuments and their meanings especially for the public and those outside of academia Measuring and Implementing Altmetrics in Library and Information Science Research Baskaran, C., 2020-01-17 Researchers are becoming increasingly concerned with tracking the impact and reach that their research has on the academic community Through the implementation of altmetrics they can now better measure the value that their research has through the analysis of citing behavior and citation based research evaluation Measuring and Implementing Altmetrics in Library and Information Science Research is a critical research book that focuses on how altmetrics can help researchers to uncover evidence of societal engagement influence and broader impacts that demonstrate the value of their research It builds a more complete picture of the visibility and profile of individual researchers and observes real time social media updates that provide insight into how faculty s research is being shared from the moment it is published Featuring a range of topics such as citations big data and social media this book is essential for researchers educators librarians professionals academicians administrators and students Decoloniality, Language and Literacy Carolyn McKinney, Pam Christie, 2021-12-20 Through a range of unconventional genres representations of data and dialogic reflective narratives alongside more traditional academic genres this book engages with contexts of decoloniality and border thinking in the Global South It addresses processes of knowledge production and participation in the highly divided and unequal schooling and higher education system in South Africa and highlights the consequences of the monolingual myth in post colonial education demonstrating opportunities for learning provided by translanguageing It explores both embodied multimodal and multilingual instances of knowledge making in teaching and teacher education that take place outside but alongside formal classroom lecture and seminar modes and the positionality and learning experiences of teacher educators in science literacy and language across the curriculum The book is not only transdisciplinary but also captures the learning that takes place beyond the borders of disciplines and formal classroom spaces

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt
