Autism Mary Clasquin-Johnson,Dikeledi Mahlo,Michel Clasquin-Johnson,2023-02-10 This book is written at a time of a paradigm shift in the African continent where dependence on western epistemologies and ontologies are giving way to African indigenous knowledge systems Africa has been an importer of knowledge from the west since time immemorial and this book contributes to the body of knowledge on autism spectrum disorder ASD from the African perspective As a result decoloniality and Inclusive Education have gained traction within the academic discourse with University of South Africa UNISA hosting decoloniality annual conference and a summer school to stimulate academic discussions and debates with a focus on African indigenous knowledge systems and theoretical lenses as opposed to the western epistemologies The book also demystifies some of the misconceptions that children with ASD are a curse and punishment from God or gods Among others Ubuntu seems to be the dominant theoretical framework underpinning some of the research studies reported in this book From Polarisation to Multispecies Relationships Janet J. McIntyre-Mills,Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes,2021-08-05 This book explores the concept of multi species relationships and suggests critical systemic pathways to protect shared habitats This book discusses how the eradication of species as a result of rapid urbanisation places humanity at risk This book demonstrates how narrow anthropocentrism has focused on the rights of human beings at the expense of other species and the environment This book explores a priori norms and a posteriori measures and indicators to include and protect multiple species This book aims to strengthen institutional capacity and powers to address and extend the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda by drawing on local wisdom but also the need to implement laws to prevent ecocide This book highlights that our fragile interdependence requires a recognition of our hybridity and interconnectedness within the web of life and suggests ways to reframe policy within and beyond the nation state to support living systems of which we are a strand Local economies and pandemics: Marius Venter,Chané de Bruyn,2023-12-14 The outbreak of the global COVID 19 pandemic has presented unprecedented challenges to both developed and less developed local economies The aim of the book is to uncover the best practises in responding to a pandemic from global perspectives as well as from a trans disciplinary point of view Scholars from various spheres in arts culture education health environment business and the public sector present their perspectives on the impacts responses and consequences for local economies and communities As a fundamental part of LED the arts culture education health environment business and the public sector domains were some of the hardest hit by the pandemic The pandemic has certainly exposed the weaknesses of current development policies and calls for new innovative measures in developing resilient local regions This book will form an essential part of the development series of CENLED as it offers insight into how a global pandemic COVID 19 impacted LED in the global North and Global South and the different responses from different spheres

Intersection of Adolescent Sexual, Reproductive, and Mental Health in Sub-Saharan Africa Negussie Boti Sidamo,Zacharie Tsala Dimbuene,Sultan Hussen Hebo,Stephen Chukwudeh,2025-06-18 Adolescence is a crucial stage of development in which young people experience a wide range of emotional social and physical changes One significant aspect of this period is the exploration and emergence of reproductive health and behaviours Alongside this mental health and well being are increasingly recognized as vital components of overall adolescent health and development The intersection of adolescent sexual reproductive and mental health is complex dynamic and multifaceted with numerous social cultural and biological factors influencing these domains Addressing this intersection remains a critical area of research policy and practice to promote healthy adolescent development and empower young people with the knowledge and skills necessary to make informed decisions about their sexual reproductive and mental health In sub Saharan Africa adolescents have greater risk factors and low access to health services that make them prone to such problems This underscores the need to consider an integrated approach to address the sexual reproductive and mental health problems of adolescents living in sub Saharan Africa These insights are pivotal for identifying novel approaches that are highly effective and well tolerated for integrated services to improve the relief of adolescents living in sub Saharan Africa from sexual reproductive and mental health problems

Indigenous knowledge systems and climate change management in Africa Ajayi, O.C. (ed),Mafongoya, P.L. (ed),2017-11-15 Climate change presents a profound challenge to food security and sustainable development in Africa Its negative impacts are likely to be greatest in the African region which is already food insecure In the face of global climate change and its emerging challenges and unknowns it is essential that decision makers base policies on the best available knowledge In recent years the knowledge of local and indigenous people often referred to as indigenous knowledge IK has been increasingly recognised as an important source of climate knowledge and adaptation strategies figures reflecting on their actions commitments and their positive impact on the modern world Rethinking Higher Education in Post-Apartheid South Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2025-07-25 This book explores the opportunities and epistemological and structural challenges facing higher education in postcolonial South Africa and argues for a fundamental transformation to meet the needs of the 21st century Taking the concept of transformation as a unifying thread this book discusses the evolving trajectories of higher education in South Africa with particular emphasis on the decolonial initiatives that have emerged in the post Apartheid era During this time there have been persistent calls for South Africa to move beyond Eurocentric education programmes and curricula in favour of a system that reflects the continent s culture and identities of all South Africans The book argues that incremental reforms of existing structures are insufficient and that instead a deeper more fundamental shift in higher education structures values and systems is needed Overall the book calls for a comprehensive transformation to expand access for historically disadvantaged communities enhance quality and competitiveness address past injustices and improve the quality and capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Also exploring the digital transformations which have accelerated in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic this book will be an essential read for researchers and policymakers working on higher education in South Africa Expanding US Military Command in Africa Tshepo Gwatiwa, Justin van der Merwe, 2020-12-23 This book discusses the systematic expansion of the United States Africa Command AFRICOM across the continent of Africa This book posits that AFRICOM expansion in Africa is part of a broader system of accumulation based on a government business media GBM complex Applying the concept at both structural and descriptive levels the GBM complex is a function of the synergy between the state s quest for power businesses need for expansion and the informational and hegemonic functions of media actors The United States GBM complex in Africa is supported and in some locations spearheaded by its military with dispossessing effects on local actors Drawing from African case studies analytical accounts and empirical case studies this book explores AFRICOM s role within this broader strategy The volume maps both the methods and the scope of this expansion as well as local resistance to this process and comprises perspectives from the five regions of Africa key sub regional organizations and voices from Africa s regional hegemons This book will be of much interest to students of security studies strategic studies African politics and International Relations The Land Is Sung Thomas M. Pooley, 2023-10-17 What does it mean to belong In The Land is Sung musicologist Thomas M Pooley shows how performances of song dance and praise poetry connect Zulu communities to their ancestral homes and genealogies For those without land tenure in the province of KwaZulu Nata performances articulate a sense of place Migrants express their allegiances through performance and spiritual relationships to land are embodied in rituals that invoke ancestral connection while advancing well being through intergenerational communication Engaging with justice and environmental ethics education and indigenous knowledge systems musical and linguistic analysis and the ethics of recording practice Pooley s analysis draws on genres of music and dance recorded in the midlands and borderlands of South Africa and in Johannesburg's inner city. His detailed sound writing captures the visceral experiences of performances in everyday life. The book is richly illustrated and there is a companion website featuring both video and audio examples. The Statesman's Yearbook 2017 Palgrave Macmillan, 2017-02-28.
