translation and ethics within translation and interpreting studies multilingualism and comparative literature     Centering the Margins of Anthropology's History Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2021-05 Centering the Margins of Anthropology's History circles around the conscious recognition of margins and suggests it is time to bring the margins to the center both in terms of a changing theoretical openness and a supporting body of scholarship     Foundations of Corporate Heritage John M. T. Balmer, 2017-03-16 Heritage is increasingly recognised as a significant corporate concern with corporate heritage brands and identities often forming an important part of a nation's patrimony Foundations of Corporate Heritage explains the principles processes strategic significance and challenges of corporate heritage formation and management This scholarly but accessible anthology includes seminal articles on the territory and also includes five new contributions with questions for study and reflection with students on executive taught courses in mind With contributions from the leading international experts in corporate heritage this book examines the research foundations of the area and applications in practice It will be important supplementary reading for students practitioners and specialists in corporate marketing brand management and marketing communications as well as tourism hospitality and heritage studies     The Material Imagination Dr Matthew Mindrup, 2015-01-28 In recent years architectural discourse has witnessed a renewed interest in materiality under the guise of such familiar tropes as material honesty form finding or digital materiality As an alternative to a formal approach in architectural design this book challenges readers to rethink the reverie of materials in architecture through an examination of historical precedent architectural practice literary sources philosophical analyses and everyday experience Focusing on matter as the premise of an architect's imagination each chapter identifies and graphically illustrates how material imagination defines the conceptual premises for making architecture     The Oxford Handbook of Anglican Studies Mark D. Chapman, Sathianathan Clarke, Martyn Percy, 2015-10-22 The Anglican Communion is the third largest Christian denomination and claims a membership of some 80 million members in about 164 countries Given that there are only around two hundred countries in the world this makes the churches of the Anglican Communion the most geographically widespread denomination after Roman Catholicism The 44 essays in this volume embrace a wide range of academic disciplines theological historical demography and geography and different aspects of culture and ethics They are united in their discussion of what is effectively a new inter disciplinary subject which we have termed Anglican Studies At the core of this volume is the phenomenon of Anglicanism as this is expressed in different places and in a variety of ways across the world This Handbook covers a far broader set of topics from a wider range of perspectives than has been hitherto attempted in Anglican Studies At the same time it doesn't impose a particular theological or historical agenda The contributions are drawn from across the spectrum of theological views and opinions It shows that the unsettled nature of the polity is part of its own rich history and many will see this as a somewhat lustrous tradition In its comprehensive coverage this volume is a valuable contribution to Anglican Studies and helps formulate a discipline that might perhaps promote dialogue and discussion across the Anglican world      Studies on Moral Competence Patricia Unger Raphael Bataglia, Cristiane Paiva Alves, Elvira Maria P. Pimentel Ribeiro Parente, 2024-03-12 This book shows how to use discussions of moral dilemmas as a strategy to develop moral competence in children and youth in educational environments using the Konstanz Method of Dilemma Discussion KMDD This method was developed by the German psychologist Georg Lind 1847 2021 who defines moral competence as an ability to solve problems and conflicts based on moral principles or values through reflection dialogue and deliberation instead of using force violence deception and manipulation According to Lind this ability can be developed in children and youth through KMDD The book has two parts The first part brings together an original chapter written by Georg Lind about his decades of research on assessment and education of moral competence and other 13 chapters written by different authors analyzing the theoretical foundations of moral development and moral competence as psychological constructs and their applications to different aspects of social life as well as empirical research analyzing the application of different methods of dilemma discussion in educational contexts The second part presents 20 moral dilemmas to be used in dilemma discussion sessions Studies on Moral Competence Proposals and Dilemmas for Discussion is the English edition of a book originally published in Portuguese for the Brazilian market and will be of interest to teachers and researchers interested in learning about the theoretical foundations and possible applications of an effective method to develop moral competence in educational environments The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content      Ethical Life Webb Keane, 2015-10-06 The human propensity to take an ethical stance toward oneself and others is found in every known society yet we also know that values taken for granted in one society can contradict those in another Does ethical life arise from human nature itself Is it a universal human trait Or is it a product of one's cultural and historical context Webb Keane offers a new approach to the empirical study of ethical life that reconciles these questions showing how ethics arise at the intersection of human biology and social dynamics Drawing on the latest findings in psychology conversational interaction ethnography and history Ethical Life takes readers from inner city America to Samoa and the Inuit Arctic to reveal how we are creatures of our biology as well as our history and how our ethical lives are contingent on both Keane looks at Melanesian theories of mind and the training of Buddhist monks and discusses important social causes such as the British abolitionist movement and American feminism He explores how styles of child rearing notions of the person and moral codes in different communities elaborate on certain basic human tendencies while suppressing or ignoring others Certain to provoke debate Ethical Life presents an entirely new way of thinking about ethics morals and the factors that shape them
