The House of the Dead & Notes from Underground: Autobiographical Novels of Fyodor Dostoyevsky (Unabridged) Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2015-05-24 The House of the Dead is a semi autobiographical novel which portrays the life of convicts in a Siberian prison camp The novel has also been published under the titles Memoirs from the House of The Dead and Notes from the Dead House or Notes from a Dead House The book is a loosely knit collection of facts events and philosophical discussion organized by theme rather than as a continuous story Dostoyevsky himself spent four years in exile in such a camp following his conviction for involvement in the Petrashevsky Circle This experience allowed him to describe with great authenticity the conditions of prison life and the characters of the convicts Notes from Underground presents itself as an excerpt from the rambling memoirs of a bitter isolated unnamed narrator generally referred to by critics as the Underground Man who is a retired civil servant living in St Petersburg The first part of the story is told in monologue form or the underground man s diary and attacks emerging Western philosophy especially Nikolay Chernyshevsky s What Is to Be Done The second part of the book is called Apropos of the Wet Snow and describes certain events that it seems are destroying and sometimes renewing the underground man who acts as a first person unreliable narrator It is considered by many to be the first existentialist novel
