

Expository Vocabulary Words

Coach Wiley

The following is your list of vocabulary words for the current chapter. You must write the definition of the word along with an original sentence (grammatically correct along with a subject and verb) that depicts the meaning of the word. These words should be numbered consecutively for each term. The word defined, along with the original sentence, is worth one point. The number of points reflects the number of words in each vocabulary section.

Failure to follow any of the aforementioned instructions will result in a deduction of points from the assignment.
