When an information source has been identified, the following four steps determine if that source is likely to be useful to the reader. First, ask if the source is relevant. Second, determine if the source is credible. Third, determine if the source is current. Fourth, determine if the source is complete. The source is relevant if it contains information that is useful to the reader. The source is credible if it is from a reliable source. The source is current if it is from a recent date. The source is complete if it contains all the information that is needed to answer the question.
