Reenvisioning Israel through Political Cartoons Matt

Reingold, 2022-03-15. Reenvisioning Israel through Political Cartoons: Visual Discourses During the 2018-2021 Electoral Crisis examines the ways in which the work of Israeli political cartoonists broadens conversations about contemporary challenges in the country. Matt Reingold shows how 21 cartoonists across 10 different Israeli newspapers produced cartoons in response to the country's social and political crises between December 2018 and June 2021, a period where the country was mired in four national elections. Each chapter is structured around an issue that emerged during this period, with examples drawn from multiple cartoonists. This allows for fertile cross-cartoonist discussion and analysis, offering an opportunity to understand the different ways that an issue affects national discourse and what commentaries have been offered about it. By focusing on this difficult period in contemporary Israeli society, the volume highlights the ways that artists have responded to these national challenges and how they have fashioned creative reimaginations of their country.

The picture politics of Sir Francis

Carruthers Gould Colin Seymour-Ure, 2024-12-17. This is the first major study of Britain's pioneering graphic satirist Sir Francis Carruthers Gould (1844-1925), the first staff political cartoonist on a daily newspaper in Britain and the first of his kind to be knighted. Written by the distinguished media historian Colin Seymour-Ure, it is essential reading for anyone interested in cartoons, caricature, and illustration, and will also be welcomed by students of history, politics, and the media. It examines Gould's career in Fleet Street until his retirement after the First World War. It also discusses his illustrations for magazines and books, and there is an analysis of his use of symbolism and literary allusion to lampoon such eminent politicians as Gladstone and Joseph Chamberlain. As Lord Baker says in his Foreword, this book is a major contribution to our knowledge of British cartooning.
