Popcru Bursary In South Africa:

Economic Development, Crime, and Policing Frederic Lemieux, Garth den Heyer, Dilip K. Das, 2014-12-04 The 22nd Annual Meeting of the International Police Executive Symposium was held in August 2012 at the United Nations Plaza in New York Chaired by Dr Garth den Heyer the symposium focused on the links between economic development armed violence and public safety Drawn from these proceedings Economic Development Crime and Policing Global Perspectives presents the insight of police leaders and researchers from a number of countries They provide worldwide perspectives and case studies about the complex interrelations and influence of these issues on police practice in developed developing and transitioning countries Topics include Youth violence in society Economic downturn and global crime trends Restorative justice and recidivism Community based policing Investigation techniques applied to financial crimes Policing gang violence Implementation of the rule of law in postconflict countries Policing transportation infrastructures The book organizes these topics according to regional perspectives global modern democracies emerging democracies and newly industrialized countries It highlights ongoing response efforts related to challenges facing the police in emerging or newly democratized states The book concludes with a comprehensive review of the fundamental elements of police reform and explores how such changes might affect society It discusses the role of society in reforming police systems and suggests new directions for this broad research agenda This book is a co publication with the International Police Executive Symposium Global Criminology K. Jaishankar, Natti Ronel, 2013-03-25 Global criminology is an emerging field covering international and transnational crimes that have not traditionally been the focus of mainstream criminology or criminal justice Global Criminology Crime and Victimization in a Globalized Era is a collection of rigorously peer reviewed papers presented at the First International Conference of the South Asian Society of Criminology and Victimology SASCV that took place in Jaipur India in 2011 Using a global yardstick as the basis for measurement the fundamental goal of the conference was to determine criminological similarities and differences in different regions Four dominant themes emerged at the conference Terrorism In a topic that operates at the intersection of international law international politics crime and victimization some questions remain unanswered Is terrorism a crime issue or a national defense issue Should terrorists be treated as war criminals soldiers or civil criminals How can international efforts and local efforts work together to defeat terrorism Cyber Crimes and Victimization Cyber space provides anonymity immediate availability and global access Cyber offenders easily abuse these open routes As cyber space develops cyber crime develops and grows To achieve better cyber security global criminologists must explore cyber crimes from a variety of perspectives including law the motivation of offenders and the impact on victims Marginality and Social Exclusion Globalization is manifest in the fast transition of people between places societies social classes and cultures Known social constructions are destroyed for new ones and marginalized people are excluded from important material social and human resources This section examines how we can provide inclusion for marginalized individuals in the global era and protect them from victimization Theoretical and Practical Models of Criminal Victimization

The process of globalization as mentioned above creates new elements of victimization But globalization can also become an opportunity for confronting and defeating victimization through improved sharing of knowledge and increased understanding of the humanity of the weak The emerging global criminology comprises diversity of attitudes explanations and perspectives The editors of this volume recognize that in the global village there is room for solid contributions to the field of criminology and criminal justice This collection is a move in this direction It is hoped that these articles will help to expand the boundaries of criminology criminal justice and victimology with a view towards reducing crime worldwide

Contesting Transformation Marcelle C. Dawson, Luke Sinwell, 2014-04-10 Contesting Transformation is a sober and critical reflection on the wave of social movement struggles which have taken place in post Apartheid South Africa Moving beyond a social movement scholarship that has tended to romanticise emergent movements this collection takes stock of the contradiction and complexity that is necessarily entangled in all forms of popular resistance Through an exploration of labour strikes legal organisations community protest and local government elections the contributors consider how different movements conceive of transformation and assess the extent to which these understandings challenge the narrative of the ruling African National Congress ANC An empirically grounded analysis from a coterie of leading researchers and analysts Contesting Transformation is the definitive critical survey of the state of popular struggle in South Africa today

South African Labour News, 1991

Fault Lines David Goodman, 2001 This is a searingly honest book by someone who really knows his subject Goodman is sympathetic to the attempts at transformation in my beloved motherland The message of this book applies just as easily to the United States where the fault lines run very deep too And the U S has been trying to solve these problems a great deal longer than the new South Africa Archbishop Desmond Tutu David Goodman s vivid intensely personal and unobtrusively erudite book is irresistible reading for anyone who cares about South Africa Adam Hochschild author of King Leopold s Ghost A gem of a book An excellent introduction to the intricacies of South African politics and society Gail M Gerhart Foreign Affairs A sequence of truths shown through the lives of eight contrasted citizens this book reveals our new South Africa with the startling accuracy of flashes of lightning on a stormy night and with the apartheid storm over a remarkable rainbow of hope can be seen Donald Woods author of Biko
