British Lesbian Gay and Bisexual Psychologies provides a critical exploration of the recent history of LGB psychology and psychotherapy in the United Kingdom focusing on key publications and outlining the current terrain. Other chapters are organized into two thematic sections. The first section explores theoretical frameworks in United Kingdom therapeutic practice while the second section examines sexual minority identities and their needs for support and community. Topics in British Lesbian Gay and Bisexual Psychologies include similarities and differences between LGBT psychology and psychotherapy in the United States and United Kingdom; gay affirmative therapy (GAT) as a positive framework; existential phenomenological approach to psychotherapy; core issues in the anxiety about whether or not to come out; object relations theory; exploring homo negativity in the therapeutic process; aspects of psychotherapy that lesbians and gay men find helpful; research into how the mainstreaming of lesbian and gay culture has affected the lives of LGB individuals; a study into LGB youth issues; difficulties of gay men with learning disabilities with suggestions on how to offer the best psychological service; a study on gay athletes; experiences of coming out in a heterosexist world. British Lesbian Gay and Bisexual Psychologies takes a needed step toward sharing valuable psychosocial perspectives between countries. This useful enlightening text is perfect for educators, students, psychologists, psychotherapists, and counselors working in the field of sexuality.

New York Magazine, 1993-01-11. New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.
