Lamma Adam Benkato,Amina Zarrugh,2023-06-18 Lamma aims to provide a forum for critically understanding the complex ideas values social configurations histories and material realities in Libya Recognizing and insisting on the urgent need for such a forum we give attention to as wide a range of disciplines sources and approaches as possible foregrounding especially those which have previously received less scholarly attention This includes but is not limited to anthropology art gender history linguistics literature music performance studies politics religion and urban studies in addition to their intersections their subfields the places in between and critical theoretical and postcolonial approaches thereto Lamma is a space where these fields interact and draw from one another and where scholars and students from inside and outside of Libya gather to redefine and reshape Libyan Studies We believe that access to research is not the privilege of a few but the right of all and that knowledge production should be inclusive For these reasons the journal takes its name from the Arabic word lamma a gathering The contributions in this second issue help to open up space for interrelated discussions on a variety of topics almost all largely neglected in the contemporary scholarly study of Libya The focal point of this issue is the reflective contributions by members of a roundtable discussion Methods and Sources for a New Generation of Libyan Studies which took place at the 2020 MESA conference We also mark the publication of a watershed book on genocide in colonial Libya with a trio of responses As ever we believe in the generative power in dialoguing and mixing works of art literature and scholarship as we seek to shape and re shape new discussions on about from and in Libya
