Slow and steady

At first thought it might seem like Emma and Ella are best buddies. They make such spectacular chemistry at the court; they must know each other really well. However, the real story is completely different. The only reason why these two prodigies expertly keep the crowd excited throughout the entire game is because of their incredible talent and skills. Every single student of East Lansing High School is aware about the rivalry between these frenemies.

Ella is a naturally gifted athlete. She barely needs to practice to be the top scorer of the match. Her physique is absolutely perfect for scoring fifteen dunks per game and she can effortlessly dazzle her opponents. Every time Ella gets the basketball in her hands, all the players stop right in their tracks to see what she would do next. They know what to expect from this rising star. Kids line up after all her games to take autographs and selfies or just to hug this future legend. Ella has been getting more and more attention lately, as it's her senior year in high school. Her followers can not wait to see her play in the and later in the wNBA. This makes Ella feel proud and she can't stop thinking how great she is.

Emma has been able to come all this way just because of her workaholic and discipline character. She is not the most talented player in her team, but definitely the hardest working one. Emma is the first one in practice and she stays at the gym long after everyone has left. This skinny, five feet tall girl works out twice, takes five hundred shots and practices all her twenty moves every single day. The sad part is people don't seem to notice her as much as she deserves; they think Emma doesn't have any potential and anyone could be at her level just by practicing a bit more. However Emma is not the type of a person who would give so easily. As each day goes by, Ella's pride confidence keeps increasing and her performance slowly gets worse. On the other hand, Emma stays focused and she's got her hopes high; she continues to get better everyday. Just a few years later, when both the girls are old enough to
