All the Best for the Future Greg James, 2025-09-25
Brilliantly funny and life affirming stories of growing up from much loved Radio 1 presenter and bestselling children's author Greg James When Greg James was ten years old his nylon shell suit clad idols the Chuckle Brothers to me to you signed an autograph from them to him with the message All the best for the future It was a weirdly formal message for a kid Ten year old Greg had no idea what the future held no clue what was in store for him as he carried on through life How could he No one really knows what's coming We all have big dreams and small ones ideas about how we want our lives to pan out when you'll get married where you'll live how many children you want what you want to be when you grow up We race through the milestones desperate to unlock life's next level and before you know it you're a grown up That's all well and good but have you remembered to have fun along the way Whether it's entertaining the nation with his hugely popular BBC Radio 1 Breakfast Show writing big funny adventures for kids with his bestselling children's books finding the joy in cricket and F1 in his podcasts Tailenders and The Fast and the Curious or posting stupid videos of his adorable but quite thick dog Barney Greg's focus is to put a smile on people's faces because let's face it having fun is something we all forget to prioritise sometimes In All the Best for the Future Greg looks at how he thought his life would go and shares the things that wind him up make him sad make him laugh and the little passions and interests that he relies on to get him through the day whether it was a good one or a bad one He tells us who he is who he thought he'd be and who he still thinks he could be Most of all though his message for everyone is not to let go of that inner child as he navigates how to grow up without growing old It's possible to be fully functioning adults with bills to pay and a dog to look after and still find time to play with a train set

My Lost Poets Philip Levine, 2016-11-08 Essays speeches and journal entries from one of our most admired and best loved poets that illuminate how he came to understand himself as a poet the events and people that he wrote about and the older poets who influenced him In prose both as superbly rendered as his poetry and as down to earth and easy as speaking Levine reveals the things that made him the poet he became In the title essay originally the final speech of his poet laureate year he recounts how as a boy he composed little speeches walking in the night woods near his house and how he later realized these were his first poems He wittily takes on the poets he studied with in the Iowa Writing Program John Berryman who was his great teacher and lifelong friend and Robert Lowell who was neither His deepest influences jazz Spain the working people of Detroit are reflected in many of the pieces There are essays on Spanish poets he admires William Carlos Williams Wordsworth Keats and others A wonderful moving collection of writings that add to our knowledge and appreciation of Philip Levine both the man and the poet Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review ,1914
