Mary O'Hara,2024-09-17 Austerity has proven deadly Over the last decade the damage caused by austerity measures in the UK has had a long lasting and profound effect on many lives The first edition of Austerity Bites offered on the ground reportage of one of the most significantly regressive economic strategies of any post war government Over a year Mary O Hara toured the UK to gauge the immediate impact and expectations of people affected and found many clinging to the hope that austerity cuts would not last long as the damage became increasingly apparent Alas this was not how things unfolded Instead much of the Welfare State had its vital support systems systematically undermined The public sector including the NHS is now on its knees Schools are buckling under multiple structural and budgetary pressures Councils even big ones are going broke Homelessness is rampant While Brexit the pandemic and war have no doubt impacted the economic health of the country previous austerity cuts left the UK less prepared to weather such extraordinary events With new commentary

Austerity Bites 10 Years On assesses on the true scale of the damage these policies have inflicted on the country's most vulnerable groups public institutions and on the wider society It reflects on where we have been where we are now and what needs to happen next to undo the damage and avoid the same mistakes again Handbook of Statistics on Indian Economy, 2004

The Facebook Narcissist Lena Derhally, 2022-05-31 A comprehensive guide for understanding how narcissism on social media impacts our mental health how to protect ourselves and our children from those affects as well as from narcissists and how to use social media more mindfully The Facebook Narcissist is the first book dedicated to exploring the relationship between narcissism and social media Lena Derhally a licensed psychotherapist certified in Imago therapy delves into how social media enhances individual and cultural narcissism and how it may create or exacerbate toxic narcissistic tendencies in people who use it Using her clinical expertise along with scientific research and interviews with other experts in the field she thoroughly examines how narcissism on social media contributes to false narratives and ruptures relationships how to identify a narcissist on social media including how to spot the more subtle sub types of narcissist such as the covert communal and collective narcissist how narcissism relates to the influencer and celebrity culture narcissism and cyberbullying cyberstalking trolling and victim blaming on social media narcissism related to racism and politics on social media the ways social media can create a problem of narcissism in children as they grow up the implications of sharenting and more Readers will discover case studies and real examples of narcissists and how they present on social media Derhally's expertise in cultivating healthy fulfilling and connected relationships helps guide readers to take a deeper look at their behaviors on social media and of those around them At the end of each chapter she gives practical tips and takeaways for navigating narcissism online Since abandoning our devices is impractical and not likely this book will help readers understand how to use social media in a balanced way that inspires fulfillment and connection instead of the entitlement attention seeking and lack of empathy that is at the heart of narcissism Derhally also instructs readers on how they may use social media for good and as a tool for positive social change Social media is here to stay but with education and awareness on how it makes us and the world more narcissistic we can change the narrative and focus on the ways in which social media can be positive and even improve the world for the better

Has the Luck Run Out? David Fagan, 2019-02-26 Why are Australians anxious and pessimistic Who or what has caused our loss of trust in Australia Why has a feeling of powerlessness crept in for so many Has the luck really run out for the lucky country And what can we do to get it back Every generation believes its forebears have messed up the planet That's how we evolve But the mood in Australia at the moment for all ages seems one of gloom People are angry Distrustful And not just because we are losing Prime Ministers faster than we are losing wickets Sport business education banking farming religion trade unions charities and hospitals have all lost their way through a series of scandals that we must learn from And disillusion with our leaders is at its peak Policy has been replaced by politicking Commentator author and former newspaper editor David Fagan asks the questions we all want answered as he traces the not so gentle decline of important Australian institutions Through analysis and interviews with experts he explores what has defined Australia in the past and how we want to be defined in the future Peeling back the rot that has contaminated almost everything Australians believe in he asks are we still the economically socially and culturally strong country that most aspire to Should we be alarmed Or has the laconic Australian drifted from believing she ll be right to being a bloody knocker Has the Luck Run Out shines a spotlight on the mistakes we have made our national disillusion and looks to what can be done to re set the mood of the times And more importantly what we have to do to set things right
